THE GAME: The No. 2/2/2 University of Alabama football team squares off with No. 12/18/15 Florida in the 2015 SEC Championship Game on Dec. 5 inside the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The game is scheduled for a 3 p.m. CT kickoff on CBS with Verne Lundquist doing play-by-play, Gary Danielson providing the color and Allie LaForce working the sidelines. Eli Gold and Phil Savage will handle the radio call on the Crimson Tide Sports Network, with Chris Stewart serving as the sideline reporter. Westwood One will broadcast on national radio with John Sadak, Derek Rackley and Tony Boselli calling all the action and Jason Horowitz hosting the pre-game and halftime shows.

RANKINGS: Alabama enters the SEC Championship Game ranked second in both the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls, while the Crimson Tide remained at No. 2 last week in the College Football Playoff rankings. Florida is ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press poll while sitting at 15th in this week's Amway Coaches Poll. The Gators were slotted at No. 12 in last week's CFP rankings.

FLORIDA: The Gators enter the 2015 SEC Championship Game with a 10-2 overall record and a 7-1 mark in conference play and won the SEC's Eastern Division. Florida got off to a hot start this season, reeling off six straight wins early on. The streak began with a 61-13 victory over New Mexico State to start the year followed by a 31-24 win against East Carolina. The Gators began SEC play with a 14-9 win at Kentucky and followed that with wins at home against Tennessee and then No. 3/5 Ole Miss. Next up was a win at Missouri, 21-3, before Florida suffered its first loss of the season at LSU, 35-28. The Gators bounced back to win their next four games, including three conference matchups. UF beat Georgia, 27-3, in Jacksonville before returning home to take down Vanderbilt, 9-7, on Homecoming weekend. The Gators finished off South Carolina, 24-14, before earning one more victory over Florida Atlantic by a score of 20-14 in an overtime thriller. Last weekend, Florida suffered its second loss of the season, this one to in-state rival Florida State, 27-2. The Gators are in their first season under head coach Jim McElwain.

SERIES HISTORY: Alabama and Florida will meet for the 39th time this Saturday, Dec. 5. The Crimson Tide owns the all-time advantage, 24-14 (actual 25-14), but Florida has the upper hand in SEC Championship games, 4-3. In the most recent matchup during the 2014 regular season, Alabama defeated Florida in Tuscaloosa, 42-21, with Blake Sims throwing for 445 yards and four touchdowns, including 10 for 201 and two scores yards to Amari Cooper. The first meeting came in 1904 with the Crimson Tide claiming a 29-0 win at home in Tuscaloosa. The two teams have squared off in some epic battles in the 2000s, with Alabama claiming a victory in 2005 before falling to the Gators in 2006 in Gainesville and 2008 in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta. The Crimson Tide has since rallied back, earning victories in the last four matchups that includes winning the 2009 SEC title and then dominating the Gators in the three regular season contests between the two by a margin of 111-37.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP MEETINGS: Alabama and Florida will meet for the eighth time in SEC Championship Game history and the third time in the past 10 years. The Crimson Tide (10) and Gators (11) lead the league for most conference championship game appearances and have squared off the most of any opponent with the next closest matchup being LSU and Georgia, who have met three times in the history of the SEC title game.

NEXT GAME: Alabama will await its bowl destination following the 2015 SEC Championship.

ALABAMA HAS MOST COLLEGE FOOTBALL AWARDS FINALISTS: The Crimson Tide leads all FBS schools for the most nominations with three players up for four College football awards at this year's ceremony in Atlanta. Derrick Henry for the Maxwell and Doak Walker Awards, Reggie Ragland for the Bednarik Award and A'Shawn Robinson for the Outland Trophy. For more information on these three as well as the Crimson Tide's five other players up for All-America nominations and postseason awards, check out www.RollTide.com/candidates.

FACING OFF WITH THE BEST: Entering the 2015 season, the Crimson Tide was tasked with the toughest schedule in college football, according to ESPN.com's College Football Power Index. SEC teams represented 13 of the 25 toughest schedules in college football, per that same index. Alabama faces off with 10 teams who participated in a bowl game a season ago, joining only three other teams in the nation facing the same gauntlet (Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Virginia). Eight of the Tide's opponents have won at least eight games and 10 are bowl eligible (Charleston Southern made the FCS Playoffs).

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in only three regular season games without national championship implications. Following the Crimson Tide's 24-21 loss to LSU in 2010, UA was essentially eliminated from the national championship discussion. The final three games of that season mark the only three regular season contests without national championship implications for the Tide in the past eight years (97 of 100 games).

RETURNING SUCCESS: The 2015 Crimson Tide returned 12 starters and 54 letterwinners from its 2014 squad that finished 12-2 as the SEC Western Division and SEC champions. The 2015 team returned seven starters on a veteran defense including Jonathan Allen, Denzel Devall, Eddie Jackson, Cyrus Jones, Reggie Ragland, Jarran Reed and A'Shawn Robinson. The offense welcomed back the staples of its offensive line in center Ryan Kelly and left tackle Cam Robinson.

FIRST TIME STARTERS: Many new faces have earned a start this season for the Crimson Tide. In the Nov. 21 matchup against Charleston Southern, both junior Korren Kirven (right tackle) and freshman Hale Hentges (tight end) made their first career starts. Prior to the CSU matchup, freshman defensive back Ronnie Harrison earned his first career start at Texas A&M on Oct. 17, and the Arkansas contest saw freshman nose guard Da'Ron Payne made his first career start. A pair of wideouts made their first career start against ULM, including senior Richard Mullaney and freshman Calvin Ridley. Quarterback Cooper Bateman made his first career start against Ole Miss. In the Middle Tennessee contest, Minkah Fitzpatrick (DB) and Dakota Ball (TE) each made their first career starts. In the season opener against Wisconsin, seven students made their first career start, including three on defense and four on offense. Getting their first career nod on defense were Marlon Humphrey (DB), Darren Lake (DT) and Shaun Dion Hamilton (LB). The offensive starters were made up of Jake Coker (QB), Robert Foster (WR), Dominick Jackson (OL) and Ross Pierschbacher (OT).

SEC WESTERN DIVISION TITLE: By virtue of Alabama's win over Auburn to close out the 2015 regular season, Alabama clinched its 11th SEC Western Division title. The Crimson Tide will represent the Western Division against SEC Eastern Division champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game to be played Saturday, Dec. 5, at The Georgia Dome in Atlanta. Alabama will be making its 10th appearance in the SEC Championship game this week with the Crimson Tide holding a record of 5-4 in nine previous appearances.

CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has won his last six "championship" games with wins over Florida (2009), Georgia (2012) and Missouri (2014) in the SEC Championship and victories over Texas (2009), LSU (2011) and Notre Dame (2012) in National Championship contests. Overall, Saban is 9-1 in those games at Alabama and LSU with five SEC titles and four national titles.

TIDE REACHES 11 WINS FOR THE 19th TIME: With the win against Auburn to close out the 2015 regular season on Nov. 28, Alabama secured its 11th victory of the season, marking the 19th time in program history that the Tide has achieved the feat. Under head coach Nick Saban, Alabama has had seven 11-win seasons (2008-09, 2011-15). It is the fifth straight season with at least 11 wins, which is the first streak of its kind in SEC history. The SEC has had three other streaks of three seasons with at least 11 victories, including Alabama from 1973-75, LSU from 2005-07 and South Carolina from 2011-13. The Crimson Tide is in search of its ninth 12-win season with a victory over Florida (also, 1979, 1992, 1994, 2008-09, 2011-12, 2014).

10-WIN SEASONS: With the Crimson Tide's victory over Charleston Southern on Nov. 21, Alabama reached the 10-win plateau for the eighth straight season. The eight consecutive years with 10 wins extends the school record that was set by the Tide last season. It is the third-longest streak in FBS since 1937, with only Florida State (14 10-win seasons from 1987-2000) and Texas (nine 10-win seasons from 2001-09) owning longer stretches. Prior to finishing 2014 with 12 wins, the previous total for most consecutive 10-win seasons was five, set by coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's teams from 1971-75. In 120 seasons, the Tide has won 10 or more games 35 times, one back of Oklahoma (36) for the most 10-win seasons in college football history. Alabama has produced 10, 10-win seasons since 2002 (2002, 2005, 2008-15). Tide head coach Nick Saban is the 11th coach in school history to lead his team to a 10-win season and is the fifth coach in school history to have more than one 10-win campaign. Bryant had a school-record 12 10-win seasons at UA, while Saban is second with seven. Other coaches to reach the milestone include: Gene Stallings (4), Wallace Wade (2), Frank Thomas (2), Harold "Red" Drew (1), Ray Perkins (1), Bill Curry (1), Mike DuBose (1), Dennis Franchione (1) and Mike Shula (1).

BEATING THE BEST: Since 2007, Alabama owns a 37-13 (.740) mark against the Associated Press top 25, including a 20-7 (.741) record against AP top-10 teams following the win over No. 4 LSU on Nov. 7. This season, the Tide has faced seven teams in the AP preseason poll, the most ranked opponents of any team in the nation. In 2015, the Crimson Tide has faced six opponents ranked at game time and is 5-1 in those contests. Alabama finished 5-2 in 2014 against opponents ranked in the AP top 25 after going 3-2 in 2013 and 5-1 in 2012. The Tide held a 4-1 mark vs. top-25 teams in 2011 and went 5-3 against the AP top 25 in 2010.

ALABAMA HAS MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 95 games, the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The Crimson Tide won 12 games in 2008, followed by a perfect 14-0 record in 2009, a 10-3 mark in 2010 and a 12-1 record in 2011. Alabama finished 13-1 in 2012, 11-2 in 2013 and 12-2 in 2014. Boise State and Oregon are tied for second with 89 wins while TCU and LSU come in at fourth and fifth, respectively.

Total Wins (since 2008)

NON-OFFENSIVE TDs IN THE SABAN ERA: Cyrus Jones' pair of punt returns for touchdowns against Charleston Southern on Nov. 21 marked the 43rd and 44th non-offensive touchdowns of the Nick Saban era. On Nov. 14, Jones returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown at Mississippi State, the 42nd non-offense touchdown of the Nick Saban era. This season, the Tide has recorded eight non-offensive touchdowns. The Crimson Tide took a school-record three interceptions back for a touchdown against Texas A&M on Oct. 17, first a 33-yard return by Minkah Fitzpatrick, then a return of 93 yards by Eddie Jackson and, finally, a 55-yard return to seal the victory, once again by Fitzpatrick. It was the first time since 2013 that Alabama had three non-offensive touchdowns in a single game. Prior to the weekend in College Station, UA returned both a blocked punt and an interception for touchdowns against Georgia. Since Saban took over in 2007, Alabama has garnered 16 interception returns, 12 punt returns, five kickoff returns, four fumble returns and four blocked punt returns for a touchdown. Alabama scored one non-offensive touchdown in 2014. The Tide scored seven non-offensive touchdowns in 2013, including three in the season opener against Virginia Tech, marking the first time the Crimson Tide had done so in a game since Sept. 30, 1995, against Georgia.

SABAN CLAIMS 200th CAREER WIN: Now in his 22nd season as a head coach at the collegiate or NFL level, Nick Saban's win over LSU on Nov. 7 marked his 200th career victory (not including vacated wins). Saban has accumulated a winning record at every collegiate stop, and has collected his best winning percentage during his time at Alabama (.843, 97-18). Across his four different college jobs, Saban-coached teams have made 17 postseason bowl appearances, won six conference championships and laid claim to four national championships. The Fairmont, W. Va., native began his head coaching career at the University of Toledo, where he led the Rockets to a 9-2 overall record that included a Mid-American Conference championship. He then returned to the collegiate head coaching ranks at Michigan State, where he coached from 1995-99 and went 34-24-1. In 2000, he went to Baton Rouge to coach LSU to a 48-16 mark from 2000-04 that included two SEC championships and one national championship (2003). Saban would move on to the NFL, where he would coach the Miami Dolphins for two seasons (2005-06) before returning to his college roots, taking on the head coaching duties at The University of Alabama. In his time at the Capstone, Saban has led the Crimson Tide to a bowl appearance in his first eight seasons as well as three SEC championships and three national championships.

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL

Alabama has been ranked in 741 of the 1,103 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 452-127-8 (.777) all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll, including a 94-15 (.862) mark under head coach Nick Saban. The Crimson Tide is also ranked in the AP poll for the 128th consecutive week, topping its previous streak set in the mid 1990s when UA was ranked for 71 straight weeks under head coach Gene Stallings. Alabama has started four seasons at No. 1 (2013, 2010, 1978, 1966).

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 25 seasons (1991-2015), and in 2014, Amway became the title sponsor. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches' poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011 and 2012 seasons. The Tide has compiled five UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 & 1979) and four USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011 & 2012) coaches poll national titles.

NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw seven former UA players selected in the 2015 NFL Draft, including first-round pick Amari Cooper who went fourth overall to the Oakland Raiders, the Tide's highest selection since Trent Richardson went third overall in 2012. Safety Landon Collins was the next to go (33rd, New York Giants) followed by T.J. Yeldon (36th, Jacksonville Jaguars) with both players being selected in the second round. Versatile back Jalston Fowler followed Yeldon, being selected in the fourth round (108th overall) by the Tennessee Titans. Also going in the fourth round was offensive lineman Arie Kouandjio who went 112th overall to the Washington Redskins. The Tide's final pair of draft picks came in the seventh round, with offensive lineman Austin Shepherd going to the Minnesota Vikings at pick 228 and linebacker Xzavier Dickson going at pick 253 to the Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots.

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: Alabama has had more draft picks over the last five years (37) than any other school. Fourteen of those picks have been first-round selections and 19 have gone in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft. The list of 37 features four Super Bowl champions, seven Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro and one Offensive Rookie of the Year.

OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past eight seasons under the direction of head coach Nick Saban has coincided with the Crimson Tide's success in the classroom. The 2015 squad features nine players who already had degrees in hand before the opening kick of the Wisconsin game. Over the past eight seasons (2008-15) Alabama has seen 94 degrees earned (graduate and undergraduate) by players still suiting up for the Crimson Tide after already having graduated. Since the 2010 season, Alabama has seen an impressive 11 players earn a master's degree before stepping foot on the field.

GRADUATING WITH THE BEST: The Alabama football team has not only been dominant on the field, but also in the classroom. The Crimson Tide ranks fourth among Associated Press Top 25 teams for its graduation rate of 86 percent. Ahead of Alabama are only Stanford (99 percent), Notre Dame (93 percent) and UCLA (89 percent). That 86 was the Southeastern Conference's highest graduation success rate (GSR) across all 14 member football programs based on figures released by the NCAA.

ACADEMIC PROWESS: The Crimson Tide has been a model of success on the football field, but the team has generated plenty of accolades in the classroom as well. Below are some of the highlights of the Tide's academic successes under head coach Nick Saban.

- Earned Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 86 this year, the highest across all 14 member football programs.
- An NCAA-leading seven members of the SEC championship team that participated in the 2015 College Football Playoff Semifinal game had already earned a master's degree.
- For the second consecutive year, Alabama football led the nation in graduates on its roster during postseason play (22 in 2014; 28 in 2013).
- Alabama's last three national title football teams included 60 players who had earned their degrees prior to game time.
- The 2014 team was recognized as one of the nation's top academic programs, ranking third in the annual academic rankings of the top 25 college football teams produced by New America, a Washington D.C. think-tank.
- The 2011 BCS national championship team had 21 graduates playing in the bowl game, which was the second most in the country.
- That same team led the SEC with 38 student-athletes being named to the 2011 SEC Academic Honor Roll
- The 2009 BCS national championship team led the country with 11 graduates playing in the bowl game.
- Alabama has led the Southeastern Conference in number of football student-athletes being named to the First-Year Academic Honor Roll in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

KELLY'S CLASSROOM SUCCESS: Senior Ryan Kelly has been a staple on the Crimson Tide offensive line for each of his four seasons in Tuscaloosa, but his academic talents are equally impressive. The Tide center graduated last summer with his undergraduate degree in marketing and is currently enrolled in classes working towards his master's degree in the same specialization, which he is scheduled to receive this December. During his undergraduate career he was named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll three times, the SEC Freshman Honor Roll and the Dean's list in both semesters of 2013. Kelly currently holds a 3.75 grade point average in his graduate studies.

CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST - RYAN KELLY: Ryan Kelly was selected by the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Football Hall of Fame as a semifinalist for the 2015 William V. Campbell Trophy, which recognizes the best football scholar-athlete in the nation. He was one of 56 semifinalists for the trophy in the FBS division. The NFF announced 15 finalists on Oct. 29, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship with the winner eventually receiving an increased scholarship of $25,000 on Dec. 8 at the 58th NFF Annual Awards Dinner. Kelly has excelled on and off the field. The Tide's third-year starter at center completed his undergrad degree in the summer of 2014 and is currently pursuing his master's. An active member in the community, Kelly has also put together numerous hours of service in Tuscaloosa but also at home in West Chester, Ohio.

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE COMMUNITY: Last season alone, the Crimson Tide put in 200-plus hours of community service in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. The team volunteered their time across numerous areas last season including in schools, hospitals and on campus.

ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM NOMINEE - O.J. HOWARD: O.J. Howard was nominated for the 2015 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. The award is one of the most esteemed off-the-field honors in college football, and recognized an all-time high 197 nominees for the 2015 season. The final roster of 22 award recipients was unveiled in September. While at UA, Howard has participated in a wide range of community service activities, both locally and across the state. The junior has spent extensive time working with children as well as the elderly in his two years as a member of the Crimson Tide football team. He regularly visits children's hospitals in Birmingham and also spent time at Children's of New Orleans on the team's two bowl trips the past two seasons. He has also volunteered numerous hours at retirement homes and regularly visits the Tuscaloosa VA hospital.

RAGLAND VOLUNTEERING IN THE COMMUNITY: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland has dedicated himself to volunteering in the community each of his four seasons, contributing numerous service hours each season. Across his first three years in Tuscaloosa, Ragland has accumulated an impressive list of volunteering opportunities and has gone above and beyond what is asked of Alabama football student-athletes. In all, he has totaled more than 50 hours of community service across double-digit volunteer opportunities that include visits to hospitals, schools and churches. Ragland has also visited veterans numerous times at local VA hospitals.

SENIOR CLASS AWARD FINALIST - REGGIE RAGLAND: Reggie Ragland was selected as one of 10 finalists for the Senior CLASS Award, which recognizes notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. Ragland returned to the Capstone in 2015 to complete his degree in consumer affairs, fulfilling a promise he made to his mother that he would earn a degree while at The University of Alabama. He has also stood out not only on the football field, but also in the community, where he has put in 50-plus hours of community service.

The acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The original list of 30 candidates was narrowed to 10 finalist on Nov. 13, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot for media, coaches and fans to select the award's winner until Dec. 14.

ALABAMA ATHLETICS AS A WHOLE: The University of Alabama has built a total program, winning championships on the field and bringing home plenty of academic awards in the classroom.

- Since 2008, Crimson Tide athletics teams have won nine national championships in five different sports and 20 SEC championships in seven different sports.
- Alabama claimed two SEC team titles during the 2014-15 academic year - football and gymnastics.
- The overall cumulative grade-point average of UA student-athletes in 2014-15 was 3.031.
- Twelve Crimson Tide teams had cumulative GPAs above 3.0 for 2014-15.
- 114 Alabama student-athletes earned SEC Academic Honor Roll status last year, a total made up of 48 in the Fall of 2014 and 66 in the Winter of 2015.
- Since 2000, UA has produced 103 Academic All-America honors, which ranks third nationally over that span behind only Nebraska (127) and Notre Dame (120). Alabama passed Penn State in 2014-15 (94) with Stanford rounding out the top five at 92.
- Since 2010, UA leads all NCAA Division I schools with 55 Academic All-America honors. Stanford is second over that span with 51, while Nebraska is third at 49.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

VETERAN DEFENSE: The Alabama defense includes seven starters from a season ago. Those seven returned 330 total tackles, 40 tackles for loss and nine sacks to this year's team. Of those returning starters, five come from the Tide front seven, including Jonathan Allen who collected 11.5 tackles for a combined loss of 44 yards, both totals that ranked second on the team in 2014. Senior defensive leader and inside linebacker Reggie Ragland returned after recording 95 total tackles, 10.5 of which were for a loss, to rank second last year.

FORCING TURNOVERS: In the nine games since losing the turnover battle 5-0 and falling to Ole Miss by six points, Alabama has turned the tide in regards to turnovers. Since the matchup with the Rebels, the Crimson Tide is plus-9 in turnovers, having forced 18 total – 13 interceptions, 5 fumbles – in those nine games. The Crimson Tide has now forced 23 turnovers this season, which is the second most in the SEC. Alabama's 15 interceptions lead the SEC and rank tied for 17th nationally, while the team's 442 return yards lead the nation and the four pick-sixes rank second nationally.

3-AND-OUT: The Alabama defense has totaled 57 three-and-outs in the past nine games (6.3 per game) to move the Crimson Tide into second place nationally at 5.75 per game. The Tide has forced a three-and-out on 69-of-167 drives this season (41.3 percent).

3-and-Outs

Average	Team (Total/Games)	Percentage of Drives
6.50	Clemson (78/12)	46.2 (78-169)
5.75	ALABAMA (69/12)	41.3 (69-167)
5.58	TCU (67/12)	38.1 (67-176)
5.42	Houston (65/12)	39.9 (65-163)
5.25	Boston College (63/12)	41.7 (63-151)

D-LINE BATTING PASSES: Alabama's heralded defensive line has found multiple ways of affecting the quarterback 12 games into the 2015 season. The Tide's defensive front ties for second nationally in batted passes with 16 among its defensive ends and nose guards. Quick passing games have hindered Alabama's ability to sack the quarterback, even though UA leads the SEC in sacks with 41 total, or 3.42 per game (third nationally). Adding in rush ends, Alabama's pass breakups among players with their hand in the dirt swells to 18.

GETTING TO THE QUARTERBACK: Alabama's front seven has made its presence known on a regular basis in 2015. The Crimson Tide ranks third nationally and leads the SEC in sacks with 3.42 per game (41 in 12 games). The 3.42 sacks per game is higher than any Alabama team during the Saban era. The 41 sacks are also three more than the previous high in a season since Saban arrived in 2007, and is also the most since the 2002 team had 44. The Tide has 36 of its sacks in the last nine games (4.0 per game). Defensive end Jonathan Allen leads the way for the Crimson Tide with 9.0 sacks (including three at Mississippi State, two against Wisconsin and two at Texas A&M). Including Allen, nine different Alabama defenders have at least two sacks this season, including OLB Tim Williams (6.5), LB Ryan Anderson (4.0), A'Shawn Robinson (3.0), DE Da'Shawn Hand (2.5), LB Reggie Ragland (2.5), OLB Rashaan Evans (2.0), DB Minkah Fitzpatrick (2.0) and DL D.J. Pettway (2.0).

LEADING THE NATION IN SHUTOUTS: The Alabama defense has shut out its opponents 16 times since the start of the 2008 season. More recently, the Crimson Tide defense has shut out 13 teams in the past five seasons, a total that leads the nation. The Tide recorded its first shutout of the 2015 season at home against Louisiana-Monroe on Sept. 28, blanking the Warhawks and limiting the ULM offense to 92 total yards.

10 POINTS OR FEWER: Alabama held Charleston Southern to six points on Nov. 21 in a 56-6 win. Under head coach Nick Saban, the Crimson Tide has held opponents to 10 points or fewer 56 times since the start of the 2007 season. The Charleston Southern game marked the fifth time this season that Alabama has held an opponent to 10 points or less. Last year, Alabama shut out two opponents. Alabama held 9-of-13 opponents to 10 points or less in 2013 with three shutouts. Seven opponents were limited to 10 points or less in 2012, four of which were shutouts. Alabama was successful in holding opponents in the 0-10 point range in nine games in 2011 and eight times in 2010. UA kept opponents within that range seven times in both 2008 and 2009, and in 2007 posted two games in which it held opponents to 0-10 points. Alabama has shut out the opposition 16 times during the Saban era.

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no defense has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama's defense, led by coordinator Kirby Smart and head coach Nick Saban, has surrendered only 136 touchdowns over the last 92 games. That is 41 fewer than the second most in the nation (Florida with 177).

Fewest TDs Allowed by Defense since 2009

Team	Touchdowns
1. ALABAMA	136
2. Florida	177
3. LSU	182

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 300: Alabama limited Auburn to 260 yards of total offense in last Saturday's Iron Bowl, the eighth time the Tide has kept a team under 300 in 2015. UA held LSU to 182, Arkansas to 220 yards, Georgia to 299 yards, ULM to 92 yards and Middle Tennessee to 275 yards, one week after holding Wisconsin to 268 yards of total offense in the season opener. In head coach Nick Saban's 120-game tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide has limited opponents to under 300 yards of total offense 74 times, or 61.7 percent of the time. UA held six of its 14 opponents below 300 yards in 2014.

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 200: During head coach Nick Saban's last 107 games at the Capstone (since the start of the 2008 season), the Crimson Tide defense has held the opposing offense to fewer than 200 yards of total offense 35 times, including three times this year (Charleston Southern – 134, LSU – 182 yards, ULM – 92). The Tide accomplished the feat twice in 2014 including against Texas A&M on Oct. 18 and versus Florida Atlantic in a weather-shortened contest to open the home schedule on Sept. 6. Alabama limited opponents to 200 or less four times in 2013. In 2012, UA did so five times, and in 2011, the Tide accomplished the feat eight times, limiting Kent State to 90 yards and LSU to only 92 yards in the BCS Championship Game (the second and third times a Saban defense had limited its opponent to less than 100 yards of total offense). Alabama's best came in 2009 when the Tide held Chattanooga to 84 yards of total offense. UA held opponents under 200 yards three times in 2010, four times in 2009 and six times in 2008.

HARD TO RUN ON: Alabama's run defense is once again near the top in the nation. Entering the SEC Championship Game, the Crimson Tide lead the nation for rushing defense, surrendering only 78.9 yards per game after facing some of the best ground games in the nation (Wisconsin, Georgia, Arkansas, Tennessee, LSU). The Tide is allowing 2.47 yards per carry. Alabama has held all 12 teams in 2015 at least 50 yards below their season rushing average. The Tide held Wisconsin to 280 yards below their 2014 rushing yards average and then Middle Tennessee (156 yards), Ole Miss (185 yards), ULM (115 yards), Georgia (69 yards), Arkansas (160 yards), Texas A&M (156 yards), Tennessee (90), LSU (255), Mississippi State (58), Charleston Southern (145) and most recently Auburn (110) below their 2015 averages entering each game. In all, Alabama has held its 12 opponents to an average of 148.3 yards per game below their average entering the game.

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Running the ball is no easy task against the Alabama defense with the Tide yielding only six rushing scores this season, which ranks tied for second nationally. The Tide has limited opposing backs to an FBS-low 28 rushes of 10 yards or more. In the last outing, the Crimson Tide limited Auburn to 91 yards rushing on 37 attempts. The Tigers entered halftime of the Iron Bowl with 90 yards on 23 carries and finished with only one total yard rushing on their last 14 totes of the day. Prior to traveling to Auburn, the Tide allowed 85 yards on 36 carries by Charleston Southern. The week prior on Nov. 14, Mississippi State was able to muster 89 yards on 42 carries. Kicking off the month of November, Alabama's defense limited LSU and the nation's top rushing attack to 54 yards on 26 attempts on Nov. 7. Prior to shutting down the Tigers running game, Alabama held Tennessee to 132 yards on 39 attempts. On Oct. 17, Texas A&M was held to 32 yards on 25 carries with the Aggies leading rusher finishing with 48 yards on 13 carries. Alabama held Arkansas to 44 yards rushing on 25 carries with the leading rusher collecting only 26 yards. On Sept. 26 against ULM, Alabama limited the Warhawks only nine yards on 31 attempts. Prior to that, on Sept. 12, the Crimson Tide held Middle Tennessee to 86 rushing yards on 31 attempts a week after stifling a potent Wisconsin rushing attack in the AdvoCare Classic, allowing only 40 total yards to the Badger rushers on 21 carries. The Crimson Tide continued the trend from a season ago, where the defense allowed only five rushing touchdowns in 14 games, the fewest in the nation (UCF was second with nine). The Tide lead the nation in allowing the fewest rushing touchdowns since the start of the 2005 season, surrendering only 77. Since head coach Nick Saban arrived in 2007, the Crimson Tide has allowed 61 rushing touchdowns. Ohio State is No. 2 in that category, giving up 94 since 2007.

RUSHING DEFENSE: Alabama has surrendered only 16 individual 100-yard rushing performances dating back to the 2005 season, a mark that leads the nation. Since head coach Nick Saban's arrival in 2007, the Tide has allowed only 11 players to rush for more than 100 yards in a game: Georgia's Nick Chubb (146 on Oct. 3, 2015), Ohio State's Ezekiel Elliot (230 on Jan. 1, 2015), Auburn's Tre Mason (164 on Nov. 30, 2013), Virginia Tech's Trey Edmunds (132 on Aug. 31, 2013), Georgia's Todd Gurley (122 yards on Dec. 1, 2012), LSU's Jeremy Hill (107 on Nov. 3, 2012), Georgia Southern's Dominique Swope (153 on Nov. 19, 2011), Tennessee's Tauren Poole (117 on Oct. 23, 2010), Ole Miss's BenJarvus Green-Ellis (131 on Oct. 13, 2007), Houston's Anthony Alridge (100 on Oct. 6, 2007) and Darren McFadden of Arkansas (195 on Sept. 15, 2007).

Fewest 100-Yard Rushers Allowed (FBS teams since 2005)

1. ALABAMA	16
2. Boston College	22
3. Ohio State	25
4. Boise State	35
5. Penn State	40

RAGLAND LEADING THE TIDE D: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland has been a force on the defense. The Tide's captain in the middle has a team-leading 90 tackles, including 6.5 for a loss (-23 yards), to go with five pass breakups, four quarterback hurries, 2.5 sacks (-10 yards) and two forced fumbles. In six of the 12 games during this season, Ragland has led the Alabama defense in stops, including a season-high 12 tackles in the win against Tennessee on Oct. 24. He's had nine tackles twice this season, first against Ole Miss and again at Texas A&M. Against the Aggies, he helped stifle a potent A&M offensive attack, notching nine total stops (eight solo), one sack (-5 yards) and 1.5 tackles for a loss (-8 yards) to mark the ninth time for his career that Ragland has led the Tide in tackles. He also tied for the team lead against Georgia with eight stops and backed that up with another eight tackles in the win over Arkansas. His other four team-leading games came a season ago when the linebacker stepped up for the Crimson Tide and finished second on the team with 95 total tackles while accounting for 10.5 tackles for loss (-27 yards), 1.5 sacks (-12 yards), one interception, three pass breakups, three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry.

JACKSON EXCELLING IN NEW ROLE: Junior strong safety Eddie Jackson has excelled at his new position this season. Formerly a cornerback, Jackson was moved to safety starting in 2015. Since the move, he has collected a team-leading five interceptions through 12, eclipsing his previous career total of two through 18 games. Jackson has added 230 yards on the picks, including two touchdowns for scores against Georgia on a 51-yard return for six and, most recently, at Texas A&M on Oct. 17 for 93 yards. His 230 yards on five picks this season are also the UA record for return yards in a season. The previous high was 163 by Hootie Ingram in 1952 on 10 interceptions. Jackson leads the nation in return yards, and is tied for the national lead in returns for touchdowns - along with teammate Minkah Fitzpatrick - and tied for 13th in total interceptions. He is currently sixth on the team in tackles with 39, while adding two pass breakups and one fumble recovery.

RAGLAND NAMED NAGURSKI TROPHY FINALIST: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland was named one of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, presented annually to the nation's top defensive player by the Charlotte Touchdown Club and FWAA. The team's defensive captain, Ragland leads the defense in tackles and has led the team in stops in more than half the Tide's games this season. Alabama has never had a Nagurski winner in its history, but has had a nominee in six of the previous eight seasons including: Landon Collins (2014), C.J. Mosley (2013), Dee Milliner (2012), Mark Barron (2011), Terrence Cody (2009) and Rashad Johnson (2008).

A'SHAWN ROBINSON NAMED OUTLAND FINALIST: Junior tackle A'Shawn Robinson was selected as one three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's best interior lineman in college football - offensive or defensive. He joins offensive tackle Spencer Drango (Baylor) and offensive guard Joshua Garnett (Stanford) on the finalist ballot. Robinson, the lone defensive lineman on the final list of candidates, has set the tone for a Tide defensive front that ranks among the tops in the nation against the run and at putting pressure on opposing quarterbacks. He leads the team in quarterback hurries and more than half his tackles this season have gone for a loss.

RAGLAND SELECTED AS BEDNARIK FINALIST: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland was selected as one of three finalists for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given annually to the nation's outstanding defensive player of the year in college football. The Tide's defensive captain joins Carl Nassib (Penn State) and Tyler Matakevich (Temple) on the finalists ballot. Ragland leads the Crimson Tide defense in tackles this season and captains one of the nation's top defenses. He has helped position the Tide's defense as the SEC's and one of the nation's top run-stopping units. A second round of voting will now take place with the winner being announced on Thursday, Dec. 10 at The Home Depot College Football Awards banquet televised by ESPN.

BUTKUS AWARD FINALIST - REGGIE RAGLAND: Senior defensive captain Reggie Ragland was named to the list of five finalists for the prestigious Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's best linebacker by the Butkus Foundation. The senior linebacker leads the team in tackles and has recorded a team-high for stops in more than half of the Crimson Tide's game this season. The semifinalist nomination for the Butkus is Ragland's second of his career, also earning the distinction in 2014. Alabama has had three winners of the Butkus Award in its storied past, including C.J. Mosley (2013), Rolando McClain (2009) and Derrick Thomas (1988).

RAGLAND NAMED LOMBARDI AWARD SEMIFINALIST: Reggie Ragland, the Crimson Tide's senior captain on defense, was named to the short list of 12 that make up the 2015 Rotary Lombardi Award Semifinalists. Joining six defensive ends, three offensive linemen and three linebackers, Ragland was selected for his mix of values, leadership, discipline, sportsmanship and excellence in his performance on the field. The fourth-year player leads the Crimson Tide defense in tackles and has helped cement the unit as one of the tops in the nation once again. Alabama has had only one winner in its storied history, with Cornelius Bennett earning the honor in 1986. The Tide has had two finalists recently, with Dont'a Hightower and Courtney Upshaw both being selected in 2011.

JACKSON NAMED THORPE AWARD SEMIFINALIST: Junior defensive back and first year safety Eddie Jackson was named to the list of 16 semifinalists for the prestigious Jim Thorpe Award, recognizing the nation's best defensive back. The third-year player has turned in an already impressive season through 11 games, setting team highs in interceptions (5) and return yards (230). Two of his five picks have been returned for touchdowns, while his 230 return yards are an Alabama single-season record, shattering the previous mark of 163 by Hootie Ingram in 1952.

DEFENSE SETS SEASON HIGH FOR SACKS AT STATE: The Crimson Tide defense recorded nine sacks against Mississippi State on Nov. 14, a season high, surpassing the previous high of six which the Tide compiled against ULM on Sept. 26 and also at Texas A&M on Oct. 17. The performance against Mississippi State is the most by an Alabama defense since the Tide racked up nine sacks against Vanderbilt on Sept. 12, 1998. Alabama has posted 38 sacks this season, the most by a Tide defense in a single season under head coach Nick Saban. That is also the most since 2002 when the Crimson Tide had 44.

HUGE GAME FOR ALLEN AT MISSISSIPPI STATE: Jonathan Allen finished the Nov. 14 contest at No. 20 Mississippi State with seven total tackles, including 3.0 sacks, both career high totals for the junior defensive end. The three sacks marked the first time an Alabama player has recorded three sacks in a game since Courtney Upshaw did it against Auburn on Nov. 26, 2010. His seven stops surpassed his previous career high of five, which he accomplished three other times in his career, most recently at Texas A&M during the 2015 season. A force along the defensive front, Allen leads the Crimson Tide in sacks with 9.0 (-63 yards) and has 25 total stops, 11.5 of which are for a loss (-67 yards).

ROBINSON SETS CAREER-HIGH MARK FOR SACKS: Junior defensive tackle A'Shawn Robinson recorded 2.5 sacks against Mississippi State on Nov. 14, all in the first half, a season-high for the Alabama defender this season. The 2.5 sacks also a career high for Robinson, whose previous high total was two sacks at Kentucky in 2013. The junior has been disruptive along the Tide defensive front, currently leading the team with eight quarterback hurries to go with his career-high 34 stops on the season, including 7.0 for a loss (-23 yards).

ANDERSON SETS CAREER HIGH FOR SACKS at MSU: Junior linebacker Ryan Anderson notched two sacks against Mississippi State on Nov. 14, the most he has had in a single game in his Alabama career. Anderson has come on strong this season, notching 4.0 sacks (-29 yards) to go with his 24 stops. His four quarterback sacks have come in his last four games, producing 1.0 against Texas A&M and Tennessee and then two most recently at State. His sack against the Volunteers helped seal the victory for the Crimson Tide, as the huge hit on the quarterback forced a fumble that Alabama would recover to stop the final offensive drive for UT.

ALLEN NAMED SEC D LINEMAN OF THE WEEK AFTER MSU: Junior defensive end Jonathan Allen was selected as the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week following his performance on Nov. 14 in Starkville against the No. 20 Mississippi State Bulldogs. He finished his day with seven tackles, including three for a loss (-17 yards), to go along with three sacks, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry. Allen became the first Alabama player to record three sacks in a game since Courtney Upshaw did it against Auburn in 2010. The Alabama defense collectively totaled nine sacks, representing the most by any Crimson Tide unit in a single game under head coach Nick Saban.

FOSTER SETS CAREER MARK FOR TACKLES AGAINST UT:

Junior linebacker Reuben Foster set a career high for tackles in the Oct. 24 matchup against Tennessee with 11 total. His previous career high was seven, which he recorded in the 2014 season opener against West Virginia. Foster has been a force on defense this year in the starting role, ranking third on the team in tackles with 39. He has added five tackles for a loss (-15 yards), one sack (-6 yards) and five pass breakups to his team totals as well.

PICK SIXES RECORD AT A&M: Alabama set a school record for interception returns on Oct. 17 at Texas A&M with three interception returns for touchdowns (the Tide had four picks in the game). Freshman nickelback Minkah Fitzpatrick also set the school record with two interception returns for touchdowns himself. Following the matchup in College Station, the Crimson Tide had returned 4-of-12 interceptions for scores, matching the most an Alabama team has had under Saban.

207 INTERCEPTION RETURN YARDS IN COLLEGE STATION:

The Crimson Tide's 207 interception return yards against Texas A&M on Oct. 17 is an Alabama single-game record. The return yards also ranked as the third-most in Southeastern Conference history and the most since 1971 when Tennessee had 214 against South Carolina.

FITZPATRICK'S TWO INT RETURNS FOR TDs AT A&M:

Freshman cornerback Minkah Fitzpatrick returned two interceptions for touchdowns against Texas A&M, going 33 and 55 yards for scores. Fitzpatrick is the only play in Alabama history (via records verified back to 1948) to return two interceptions for scores in the same game. His 88 yards also ranked tied for seventh in Alabama single-game history.

JACKSON SETS UA MARK FOR INT RETURN YARDS AT A&M:

Eddie Jackson's 119 return yards on interceptions against Texas A&M on Oct. 17 is the most yards in a single game by an Alabama defender. The previous record high was 98 by Mark McMillian against Chattanooga on Oct. 5, 1991.

THIRD-LONGEST PICK-SIX IN ALABAMA HISTORY:

Eddie Jackson's 93-yard pick-six in the second quarter of the Texas A&M game was the third-longest interception return in Alabama history. Jackson returned three interceptions for a total of 230 yards through the first seven games, setting a Crimson Tide record for interception return yards in a season. It broke a 63-year-old record set in 1952 by Hootie Ingram, who registered 163 yards across 10 total picks for the season.

FITZPATRICK EARNS FOUR HONORS FOLLOWING A&M:

Freshman defensive back Minkah Fitzpatrick was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week and the Southeastern Conference's Freshman of the Week following his standout performance at Texas A&M on Oct. 17. He then shared FWA National Defensive Player of the Week honors with teammate Eddie Jackson and closed out his week earning honorable mention accolades for the Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week. The first-year starter returned two interceptions for touchdowns against the Aggies, going for 33 and 55 yards on the scores. The two pick-sixes marked the first time in Alabama history (via records verified back to 1948) that two interceptions were returned for touchdowns by the same player. He also finished with two solo tackles and helped limited A&M to only 316 yards of total offense, 164 yards below their season average.

TIDE BACKS SHARE FWA DEFENSIVE POTW HONORS:

Alabama defensive backs Eddie Jackson and Minkah Fitzpatrick were named the AutoNation FWA National Defensive Players of the Week for their performance against Texas A&M on Oct. 17. Combined, the two Tide defenders snagged four interceptions, three of which went for touchdowns, and accumulated 207 return yards on the picks. Fitzpatrick's two returns for scores came from 33 and 55 yards, while Jackson's pick-six was a 93-yard score, the third-longest interception return in UA history. The combined yardage total for the duo was an Alabama single-game record and was the third-highest total in SEC history, while Jackson's 119 return yards in the game were the most in a single-game in Crimson Tide history.

PAIR OF WEEKLY AWARDS FOR RAGLAND VS. ARKANSAS:

Alabama senior linebacker Reggie Ragland was named the Southeastern Conference's Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 12 and then earned Bednarik Award National Defensive Player of the Week honors following the 27-14 win over Arkansas. He led the Alabama defense in tackles with eight total, including seven solo stops, while helping limit the Razorbacks to 220 yards of offense, more than 250 yards below their season average. He added a sack, forced fumble, pass breakup and two quarterback hurries on the night. The SEC award was the first conference honor of Ragland's career.

DEFENSE SETS SEASON HIGH FOR SACKS VS. ULM:

The Crimson Tide defense notched six total sacks against ULM, led by sophomore Da'Shawn Hand's 1.5 sacks for -4 yards. The six sacks were the most the Alabama defense has recorded since last season when UA notched six against Texas A&M. Alabama had four of its six sacks in the first half against the Warhawks, to eclipse the previous single-game season-high of three that the defense accumulated against Wisconsin.

TIDE FORCING TURNOVERS VS. MTSU:

Alabama forced four total turnovers on Sept. 12 against Middle Tennessee, with three coming in the first half – two fumble recoveries and one interception, and the final coming by way of a fumble once again in the second half. Prior to that, the last time the Crimson Tide forced at least four turnovers in a game was on Sept. 15, 2012, when the Tide forced three fumbles and two interception against Arkansas. In the week prior to the trip to Fayetteville, Alabama forced four turnovers against Western Kentucky including three fumbles and one interception.

OFFENSIVE NOTESHENRY SELECTED AS MAXWELL FINALIST:

Alabama junior running back Derrick Henry was selected as one of three finalists for the Maxwell Award, presented annually to the Collegiate Player of the Year. He joins quarterback Deshaun Watson (Clemson) and running back Christian McCaffrey (Stanford) on the ballot. Henry has turned in an impressive season, leading the Tide in rushing and setting the Alabama all-time mark for consecutive games with a touchdown following his first score of the game against Arkansas. Henry also produced a 271-yard performance at Auburn in the Iron Bowl, the third-highest game total in Alabama history and his fourth 200-yard game of the 2015 season. The winner will be announced on Dec. 10 at The Home Depot 25th Anniversary College Football Awards at the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta, Ga.

DOAK WALKER FINALIST - DERRICK HENRY: Derrick Henry was selected as one of three finalists for the Doak Walker Award, presented annually to the nation's top running back. Henry joins Leonard Fournette (LSU) and Christian McCaffrey (Stanford) on the list of three final candidates. In his first season as the team's starting back, Henry is on pace to set the Alabama all-time mark for yards in a season as well as the touchdowns record. He has been his best against some of the Tide's toughest competition, amassing an FBS-leading 1,072 yards and 12 touchdowns in the Crimson Tide's six games against ranked opponents. Henry has also added four 200-plus yard performances to his resume, making him one of only two backs in SEC history to do so joining Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1980) and Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) as the only SEC backs to collect four 200-yard efforts in the same season. His four games passes Alabama's previous record of three which was set by Bobby Humphrey in 1986. Trent Richardson won the Award in 2011, making him the only back in Alabama history to do so.

NATIONALLY RANKED: Derrick Henry moved into the national lead for rushing yards this season with 1,797 following his career-high 271-yard performance against Auburn in the 2015 Iron Bowl. He also leads the NCAA in touchdowns with 22, while ranking third in yards per game with 149.8.

HENRY THRIVES IN DOMES: Derrick Henry has been on a tear inside domed stadiums during his career. For his career, he has compiled 593 yards on 72 carries with eight touchdowns on the ground, while also adding five receptions for 127 yards and a touchdown. He finished the season-opening contest against Wisconsin with 147 yards. Last season, he put together 95 yards rushing on 13 carries with one rushing touchdown. He also added two receptions for 54 yards in that contest with the Buckeyes. Prior to that, he put together a 20-carry, 141-yard performance with two touchdowns in the SEC Championship game against Missouri. Henry opened the 2014 season against West Virginia, putting together 113 yards on 17 carries with one touchdown. He ended his freshman campaign with 100 yards on eight carries and one TD while also adding one reception for a 61-yard touchdown in the Sugar Bowl against Oklahoma. He began his career inside a dome, rushing just once for -3 yards against Virginia Tech in the 2013 season opener.

HENRY DOING IT AGAINST TOP RUN DEFENSES: Derrick Henry has stepped up to the challenge of facing some of the best rushing defenses in the nation in 2015 and has taken his game to another level. Alabama has faced seven rushing defenses that are currently ranked in the top 50 nationally and in those games Henry has 966 yards on 171 carries and 14 touchdowns for an average of 138.0 yards per game and 5.65 yards per carry. That includes 147 yards and three scores against Wisconsin's No. 6-ranked rushing defense and 210 yards and three more scores against LSU's then-No. 6 rushing defense.

DERRICK HENRY VS. RANKED TEAMS: Derrick Henry has had an impressive overall season, but his play against the six ranked opponents Alabama has faced – No. 20 Wisconsin, No. 15 Ole Miss, No. 8 Georgia, No. 9 Texas A&M, No. 4 LSU and No. 20 Mississippi State – has been even better. Henry is rushing for 178.7 yards per game (1,072 yards) against ranked teams, with all six games over 125 yards and three over 200 yards (236 at A&M; 210 vs. LSU; 204 at Mississippi State). He has 154 carries against ranked teams for a 6.9 yards per carry average and 12 touchdowns.

YARDS AFTER CONTACT FOR HENRY: All aspects of running back Derrick Henry's game are impressive, but his ability to gain yards after contact has been a key component of his stellar 2015 season. The junior has accounted for 69.0 percent of his rushing yards this season after first contact. He enters the SEC Championship with 1,791 yards rushing and 1,235 of those yards have come after contact. He has gained at least 85 yards after contact in eight games this season and over 100 yards on five occasions. He has earned 59 percent or more of his rushing yards after contact in 10 of 12 games this season. In the last six games, Henry has rushed for 1,132 yards with 797 of those coming after contact (70.4 percent).

HENRY REACHING THE END ZONE CONSISTENTLY: Derrick Henry's 25-yard touchdown run on the Crimson Tide's final drive of the day against Auburn in the 2015 Iron Bowl moved his consecutive games with a touchdown streak to 17. The 17-game streak is currently the longest active streak in the nation, and the longest by an SEC player in the past 20 years eclipsing Tim Tebow's streak of 14 games that he set from 2006-07. The streak is also the longest in Alabama history, with the previous high being 10 by Terry Davis across the 1971 and 1972 seasons from Nov. 6, 1971-Oct. 21, 1972. The last time Henry failed to notch a score was in the LSU game on Nov. 8, 2014.

Consecutive Games with a Touchdown in UA History

TDs	Name	Year
17	Derrick Henry	11/15/15-Present
10	Terry Davis	11/6/71-10/21/72
8	Johnny Musso	11/28/70-10/30/71
8	Bobby Marlow	11/18/50-11/10/51

HENRY ON RECORD-SETTING PACE: Derrick Henry has rushed for 1,797 yards and 22 touchdowns through 12 regular season games to claim the Alabama single-season record in each category. Both totals were previously held by Trent Richardson in 2011, when Richardson collected 21 touchdowns and 1,679 yards on 283 carries. Henry is currently averaging 149.8 yards per game and 1.8 scores per contest. If he were to continue at his current pace over his next two games, Henry would finish with 2,097 yards and at least 25 scores (SEC Championship and guaranteed bowl game). The 25 scores would set the Southeastern Conference record, passing the total of 23 that is currently shared by Tim Tebow (Florida) and Tre Mason (Auburn). If Henry were to reach the 2,000-yard mark he would become just the 25th back in FBS history to gain 2,000 or more yards in a single season. His 1,797 thus far ranks as the 72nd most yards in NCAA history for a single season.

HENRY PASSING THE CENTURY MARK: Derrick Henry finished tonight's game with 271 total yards and had accumulated 102 yards in the first half against Auburn to push him past the century mark for the 14th time in his career, and marks his eighth 100-plus game this season. The 14 career 100-yard games moves him into sole possession of third place in the Alabama annals. His eight 100-yard performances this season also moves him into third place after being tied with Shaun Alexander (1999) and Sherman Williams (1994) before today's game. Henry, who rushed for 210 yards against LSU on Nov. 4, notched 143 yards against Tennessee a week after going for a career-high 236 yards at Texas A&M. Prior to A&M, Henry rushed for 148 at Georgia on Oct. 3. He went for 127 against Ole Miss and 147 yards with three touchdowns against Wisconsin to open the 2015 campaign. Henry had a 141-yard performance against Missouri in the 2014 SEC Championship Game. He also went for 111 on 20 carries with a score against Florida in 2014 and 113 on 17 carries with a touchdown against West Virginia in that same year. As a freshman in 2013, Henry produced a Sugar Bowl game against Oklahoma that saw the first-year back go for 100 yards on eight attempts with a touchdown, while also collecting 111 yards on six carries with a score against Arkansas in 2013.

HENRY STANDING OUT AS A STARTER: Junior Derrick Henry earned the starting nod at tailback in the 2015 season opener and has filled that role in every game since. With 271 yards in tonight's contest against Auburn, in 14 games as a starter he has rushed for 1,999 yards on 320 carries (6.3 yards per carry) with 24 touchdowns. Prior to 2015, Henry started only twice - vs. Western Carolina and Ohio State in 2014. He has collected at least one rushing touchdown in each start, and has notched double-digit scoring days eight times. Through the air, he has hauled in 13 passes for 160 yards (12.3 yards per catch) with one receiving score.

HENRY MOVING UP IN THE CAREER RANKS: With his touchdown run to seal the victory over Auburn in the 2015 Iron Bowl, Derrick Henry has collected 36 rushing touchdowns for his career. The 36 scores moves him past Trent Richardson to fourth place all-time in Alabama history. Next on the list is T.J. Yeldon with 37 from 2012-14. In front of Yeldon is Shaun Alexander (1996-99) with 41 and the all-time leader, Mark Ingram (2008-10), with 42. Henry has also put together 3,169 yards for his career, a total that ranks him sixth in the Crimson Tide ranks. Next on the career rushing list is Mark Ingram with 3,261 from 2008-10. The Alabama all-time leader for yards in a career is also Alexander with 3,565 from 1996-99.

HENRY ON PACE FOR UA HIGH FOR YARDS PER GAME IN A SEASON: Junior tailback Derrick Henry is on pace for the most yards per game in a single season in Alabama history. The current mark for yards per game in a season 133.7 by Bobby Humphrey in 1986. Henry is averaging 149.8 through 12 games thus far.

HENRY MOVES INTO TOP 10 FOR CARRIES: Derrick Henry has amassed 502 carries for his career at Alabama. That total ranks ninth all-time in Crimson Tide history. In eighth place is Sherman Williams from 1991-94 with 535 totes. The all-time mark for a career is Shaun Alexander from 1996-99 with 727 carries. His 295 rushes this year rank as the second most in a season by a Tide back.

HENRY FINDING PAYDIRT: Junior running back Derrick Henry enters the SEC Championship game as the national leader in rushing touchdowns with 22. He found the end zone three times in both of the first two games and most recently against LSU to set career highs while adding two touchdowns against Texas A&M, Tennessee, at Mississippi State and against Charleston Southern, and one score apiece in the Ole Miss, ULM, Georgia and Arkansas games. He produced a record-setting performance against A&M, notching the Tide's only two offensive scores on rushes as part of his 236 yards on the ground.

HENRY HAS HUGE IRON BOWL: The 2015 Iron Bowl proved favorable for junior running back Derrick Henry, as he had a career day rushing 46 times for 271 yards and a touchdown. His numbers cemented him in the record books in numerous categories. The 46 carries were an Alabama all-time mark, passing Johnny Musso's 42 against Auburn on Nov. 28, 1970. His Iron Bowl yardage total passed Bo Jackson's 256 on Dec. 3, 1983. Below is a look at where Henry's career day ranked.

Stat	DH's Total	Rank	Record
Carries (Single Game)	46	1st	(previously) 42
Consecutive Rushes	14	2nd	15
Yards (Single Game)	271	3rd	291
Yards (Iron Bowl Only)	271	1st	(previously) 256

RIDLEY GOES FOR HUGE SCORES: Freshman wideout Calvin Ridley has notched five touchdown catches this season, four of which have gone for 30 yards or more, including last Saturday's 30-yard catch and score from Jake Coker against Charleston Southern. His second career TD was a 45-yard strike against Georgia, and he followed that with an 81-yard reception against Arkansas the very next week. The Nov. 14 touchdown score at Mississippi State came on a screen that the freshman took for a 60-yard score. His other touchdown catch this season was a 15-yard reception against ULM, the first receiving score of his career.

JAKE COKER IMPROVING EVERY WEEK: Senior quarterback Jake Coker's toughness has been on display several times in recent weeks and his efforts running the ball have converted several first downs for the Crimson Tide. While his feet and toughness have gotten him attention, his quiet command of the Tide offense has helped win games. Over the past eight games, Coker is completing 72.0 percent (136-for-189) of his passes for 1,499 yards and seven touchdowns, equating to a 146.57 NCAA QB rating and a 98.62 NFL passer rating.

FIRST HALF POINTS: With Adam Griffith's 26-yard field goal on the Crimson Tide's opening drive on offense in today's contest against Auburn, the Crimson Tide has scored in the first half of its last 115 games, the longest streak in the nation. The last time UA failed to score in the first half was on Sept. 29, 2007, when Alabama and Florida State headed into halftime in a scoreless tie. The Seminoles won that game, 21-14.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: With a 26-yard field goal by Adam Griffith on Alabama's first offensive drive of the day against Auburn, the Crimson Tide has now scored in 195 consecutive games - the longest streak in program history.

RUSHING TO SUCCESS: Alabama is 77-4 since the start of the 2008 season when rushing for at least 140 yards. The only losses were at Auburn in 2013, Ole Miss and Ohio State in 2014, and Ole Miss in 2015.

BALL PROTECTION: In its past 106 games, Alabama has turned the ball over only 126 times (69 fumbles, 57 interceptions) for 1.19 turnovers per game. Since 2009, that mark is even better as the Tide has turned the ball over only 107 times in 93 games (1.15/gm). Since 2009, UA starting quarterbacks have thrown an impressively low 44 interceptions in 2,522 attempts (1 INT every 57.3 attempts). Dating back to the 2009 season, the top two running backs in the rotation have lost a fumble only 19 times. Over that 107-game span, the top two running backs have recorded 2,759 touches, losing a fumble once every 145.2 touches.

RYAN KELLY NAMED OUTLAND SEMIFINALIST: Senior center Ryan Kelly was selected as one six semifinalists for the Outland Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's best interior lineman in college football - offensive or defensive. The leader of the Alabama offensive line, Kelly has helped pave the way for Heisman Trophy candidate Derrick Henry. A consistence force along the offensive front, Kelly has been named a player of the week on offense by the UA coaches in four games this season (Wisconsin, Georgia, Tennessee, LSU).

HOWARD NAMED MACKAY SEMIFINALIST: Junior tight end O.J. Howard was named to the list of eight semifinalists for the prestigious John Mackey Award, presented annually to the nation's top tight end. Howard is currently in the midst of the most productive season of his career, providing an impact as both a pass catcher and a blocker. Through 10 games, his 29 catches and 323 yards represent career marks and rank third on the team in each category. Fifteen of his catches have converted first downs for the Tide with five of those receptions being for 20 yards or more. Howard has also helped provide rushing lanes for a Crimson Tide rushing attack that ranks among the best in the SEC.

OFFENSIVE LINE EARNS SEMIFINALIST HONORS: The Crimson Tide's offensive line was selected as one of 20 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award, presented annually to the nation's top offensive line unit. The Tide O-line, led by coach Mario Cristobal, has provided protection for a balanced attack that ranks among the SEC's top scoring offenses. The unit has stood out in the run game specifically, helping open holes for the nation's rushing touchdown leader Derrick Henry. The Joe Moore Award annually recognizes the most outstanding offensive line unit that best displays toughness, effort, teamwork, physicality, tone setting and finishing. Five finalists for the award will be announced Nov. 30.

HENRY NAMED SEC OFFENSIVE POTW AFTER STATE: Derrick Henry was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week for the fourth time this season after rushing for 204 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries against the Bulldogs. With the effort in Starkville, Henry has rushed for more than 200 yards three times this season, all coming in the last four games, with each 200-yard performance coming against a top-20 team. He broke free for touchdown runs of 74 and 65 yards to extend his school record of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown to 15, the longest such streak by an SEC player in the last 20 seasons.

HISTORIC PERFORMANCE FOR HENRY AT STATE: With 204 yards rushing against Mississippi State on Nov. 14, Derrick Henry eclipsed the 200-yard mark in rushing yards for the third time this season. Henry, who rushed for 210 yards the week prior (Nov. 7) against LSU, became the first back in Alabama history to post consecutive 200-yard rushing performances. He is the second back in Alabama history to rush for 200 yards three times in a single season, joining Bobby Humphrey who did it in 1986, at Mississippi State (284 yards), at Tennessee (220 yards) and against Auburn (204 yards). Henry put together a career-high 236 yards at Texas A&M on Oct. 17 and then went on to collect 210 against LSU. He followed the contest against the Tigers with his most recent 200-plus performance, this one against Mississippi State.

KELLY NAMED SEC OL OF THE WEEK AFTER LSU: Senior center Ryan Kelly was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week for the first time in his career in recognition of his performance against LSU. The offensive captain led a UA offensive line that opened holes for 250 yards rushing as a team, including 210 yards for Derrick Henry. He provided time for 434 yards of total offense, as quarterback Jake Coker completed 75.0 percent of his passes for 184 yards against one of the SEC's top-ranked defenses. Kelly graded out at a team and season-high 92 percent for the Tide front while recording two knockdown blocks and not allowing a single sack or quarterback pressure.

HENRY JOINS ELITE LIST WITH EFFORT VS. LSU: Derrick Henry's 210-yard, three-touchdown performance on Nov. 7 against then-No. 4 LSU made him one of just four SEC running backs in the past 20 years to go for 200-plus yards and score three or more touchdowns. The other three to achieve the feat were Tre Mason (2013 vs. Missouri), Darren McFadden (2007 vs. LSU) and Shaun Alexander (1996 vs. LSU).

HOWARD SETS CAREER-HIGH FOR RECEPTIONS VS. UT: Junior tight end O.J. Howard set a career high for receptions against Tennessee on Oct. 24 with seven catches. His previous mark for receptions in a game was four, which he accomplished two other times, with the most recent coming against Ole Miss this season. A reliable option for the Alabama offense, Howard has hauled in 26 receptions for 290 yards to average 11.2 yards per catch.

HENRY NAMED SEC OFFENSIVE POTW AFTER A&M: Junior running back Derrick Henry was the Southeastern Conference's Offensive Player of the Week following his performance at Texas A&M on Oct. 17. Henry set career highs for rushing yards (236) and carries (32) in the Tide's 41-23 win in College Station. He added two scores and one reception for 18 yards to account for 64.1 percent of the Crimson Tide's offensive output. The touchdown extended his school-record for games with a touchdown to 12. His 236 yards on the ground marked the fifth-highest single-game rushing total in Alabama school history.

RIDLEY SETS CAREER-HIGHS, AGAIN: Freshman wideout Calvin Ridley finished the Oct. 10 Arkansas game with nine catches for 140 yards, both career-high marks for the first-year player. A week prior against Georgia, the freshman totaled 120 yards in Athens to set his high mark, and he previously reeled in a high of six against Ole Miss on Sept. 19. The 81-yard reception was also the longest of Ridley's young career. Proving to be a big-play threat, he has three receptions of 45 yards or more this season. He set his career-high with a 45-yard catch and score and followed that with a 50-yard reception in the Georgia game, before topping both marks with his 81-yard play against Arkansas.

RIDLEY RECEPTION VS. ARKANSAS RANKS ALL-TIME: The 81-yard touchdown reception from Jake Coker to Calvin Ridley in the Arkansas game on Oct. 10 ranked in Alabama football history. The play was the second-longest touchdown reception by a freshman, trailing only Pierre Goode's 90-yard reception from Jeff Dunn against Tennessee in 1987. The catch was also the 11th-longest reception in Alabama history and was the longest since a connection of 87 yards from Blake Sims to Kenyan Drake a season ago against Florida on Sept. 20, 2014. The pass-and-catch was also the longest play for the Crimson Tide so far this season, the longest reception of Ridley's career and longest completion of Coker's career.

TWO WEEKLY SEC HONORS AFTER WIN AT UGA: Alabama notched two weekly awards from the Southeastern Conference following the Georgia game on Oct. 3. Junior running back Derrick Henry was named Offensive Player of the Week, while first-year wideout Calvin Ridley earned Freshman of the Week honors from the league office. Henry finished the game in Athens with 148 yards on 26 carries, while adding one score to earn his second weekly honor from the league office through the first five games. Ridley had his best game to date as a member of the Tide, collecting 120 yards on five catches with one score to become the first freshman to pass the century mark for receiving yards since Amari Cooper did so in the 2013 BCS National Championship Game against Notre Dame.

DRAKE SELECTED TO HORNUNG HONOR ROLL: Senior Kenyan Drake was selected to the Paul Hornung Award Honor Roll for his efforts against Middle Tennessee on Sept. 12. The Tide back produced 202 all-purpose yards, including career highs in receiving yards and receptions. He finished the home opener with five receptions for 91 yards and a touchdown, while adding six carries for 40 yards and three kickoff returns for 71 yards. Drake's longest return went for 40 yards, and his 69-yard reception helped put Alabama in position to score its third touchdown of the day. Each year, the Hornung Award recognizes the most versatile player in major college football.

HENRY NOTCHES THREE WEEKLY AWARDS: Thanks to his career day against the Wisconsin Badgers on Sept. 5, junior running back Derrick Henry was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week, the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Offensive Player of the Week and the Maxwell Award (top running back) Player of the Week. In the season opener, Henry rushed for 147 yards on only 13 carries (11.3 ypc) with three total touchdowns. He also had four rushes of 10 or more yards while accounting for five first downs. The conference honor was the first of his career.

OFFENSIVE LINE EARNS NATIONAL ACCLAIM: The Alabama offense produced 502 yards of total offense, including 34 points and 27 first downs, in the season opener against Wisconsin. A main reason for the offensive output was the standout performance by the Crimson Tide offensive line, which earned itself a spot on the Joe Moore Award Honor Roll. Each week, the award recognizes and promotes top-performing units across the country based on six criteria: toughness, effort, teamwork, physicality, tone setting and finishing.

GRIFFITH'S FIVE FIELD GOALS: Adam Griffith's five field goals made in the season finale at Auburn is the second-most in a single game by an Alabama kicker, tied with Leigh Tiffin at Ole Miss (Oct. 10, 2009) and Jeremy Shelley against LSU (Jan. 9, 2012). It also set the record for the most field goals in a game against Auburn, passing the four Van Tiffin collected in the 1985 Iron Bowl.

GRIFFITH BACK ON TRACK: Junior placekicker Adam Griffith has made 19 of his last 22 field goal attempts. He missed his first four attempts of the season, but made eight straight before a blocked kick at Mississippi State (Nov. 14). Griffith not missed an extra point in 48 attempts this season. He also has a career-best 42 touchbacks on kickoffs this season.

A NEW JONES RETURNS THE PUNTS: With the departure of veteran punt returner Christian Jones, senior defensive back Cyrus Jones stepped in to fill that void. In 12 games this season, Cyrus has returned 29 punts for 406 yards to rank fifth all-time for single-season return yards. His long return of the season went for 72 yards and a score against Charleston Southern. Cyrus has also added three punt returns for scores this season, including two against CSU and one at Mississippi State. Prior to this season, he had returned 12 punts for 143 yards with a long return of 70 yards that came last season against Florida Atlantic. Jones has returned a career-high five punts twice this season, first against ULM on Sept. 26 and then against Georgia on Oct. 10. His four returns in the season opener against Wisconsin tied his previous career high, which he also collected against Tennessee as a freshman in 2012.

SCOTT FINDING HIS RHYTHM: Sophomore punter JK Scott has found his rhythm in recent weeks. He is averaging 46.9 yards per punt (27 punts for 1,265 yards) over the past seven games. Most recently, Scott punted three times for 145 yards at Auburn on Nov. 28 to close out the regular season. Prior to the Iron Bowl, he punted five times for 200 yards at Mississippi State on Nov. 14 with one landing inside the 20-yard line. In the Nov. 7 contest against LSU, Scott recorded three punts for 135 yards with a long of 50. He punted four times for 199 yards with a long of 56 against Tennessee and four times for 200 yards against Arkansas with two inside the 20-yard line for a 50.0 yards per punt average and a season-long of 58 yards. At Texas A&M, he averaged 48.2 yards on eight punts (386 yards) with a long of 56 yards. Scott's season average has climbed to 43.4 yards per punt.

JONES NAMED CO-SEC SPECIAL TEAMS POTW: Senior punter returned Cyrus Jones was named the Co-SEC Special Teams Player of the Week following his performance against Charleston Southern on Nov. 21. The Tide's return man on punts took two back for touchdowns from 43 yards and a career-long 70 yards out, making him the first player in Alabama history to return two punts for scores in the same game. He also notched punt returns in back-to-back games, another first in Crimson Tide history.

PUNT RETURNS TD FOR JONES AGAINST CSU: Cyrus Jones' 43-yard and 70-yard punt returns for touchdowns against Charleston Southern on Nov. 21 were the second and third of his career, both coming in the last two games. Jones' pair of punt return for scores against the Buccaneers marked the first time in Alabama history (records dating back to 1944) that a single player took two back in the same game. The punt returns for touchdowns in consecutive weeks was also a first by the same player. The closest any Alabama player had previously come to punt return scores in consecutive weeks was David Palmer in 1991, when he took one back 56 yards against Vanderbilt on Sept. 28 and then two games later took a second one in for six from 69 yards out against Tulane on Oct. 12.

PUNT RETURN TD FOR JONES IN STARKVILLE: Cyrus Jones' 69-yard punt return for a touchdown on Nov. 14 at Mississippi State was the first of his career (37 returns prior to the score). It was also Alabama's first punt returned for a touchdown since Christian Jones took one back 75 yards against Chattanooga on Nov. 23, 2013.

GRIFFITH NAMED SEC SPECIAL TEAMS POTW AFTER LSU: Junior placekicker Adam Griffith earned Southeastern Conference Special Teams Player of the Week honors following his performance in the 30-16 win against LSU on Nov. 7. The Tide kicker put together one of the best games of his career, connecting on all six of his kicks including three field goals and three extra points for a total of 12 points scored. He also averaged 64.0 yards on seven kickoffs (448 yards/7 kicks) with three touchbacks. Late in the second quarter, Griffith nailed a career-long 55-yard field goal, tying for the second-longest field goal in Alabama history and tied for the longest made field goal without the use of a tee.

GRIFFITH'S FIELD GOAL VS. LSU TIES RECORD: Adam Griffith's 55-yard field goal against LSU on Nov. 7 tied for the second-longest field goal in Alabama history, and matched the longest field goal made in Crimson Tide history without the use of a kicking tee. The other 55-yard field goal was by Ryan Pflugner at Arkansas on Sept. 26, 1998. The UA all-time record is owned by Van Tiffin, who booted a 57 yarder off a tee against Texas A&M on Sept. 14, 1985.

SCOTT NAMED SEC SPECIAL TEAMS POTW AFTER UT: Sophomore punter JK Scott earned Southeastern Conference Special Teams Player of the Week honors following his performance against Tennessee on Oct. 24. The second-year punter had four punts for 199 total yards in the Tide's 19-14 win over the Vols. He averaged 49.8 yards per punt but, more importantly, netted 44.0 yards on those four kicks. Scott had two punts travel more than 55 yards and twice pinned the ball inside the UT 10-yard line to help flip the field for the Crimson Tide in a game of field position.

SCOTT BOOTS SEASON-LONG PUNT VS. HOGS: Sophomore punter JK Scott nailed a season-best 58-yard punt in the Tide's game against Arkansas. The punt bested his previous kick that day that went for 55 yards to eclipse his season best of 54 entering the game, which he notched the week prior at Georgia.

TIDE BLOCKS PUNT FOR A SCORE AT UGA: On Oct. 3, freshman defensive back Minkah Fitzpatrick blocked a Georgia punt and recovered the ball for a touchdown to give Alabama its first blocked punt return for a touchdown since Sept. 21, 2013, against Colorado State. In that game, Kenyan Drake blocked a Rams punt and Dillon Lee took the ball in for a score. The blocked punt is the Crimson Tide's second of the season (also, Ronnie Harrison vs. Middle Tennessee). The block-and-score was also the fourth by Alabama under head coach Nick Saban.

ALABAMA SPECIAL TEAMS RECOVERS ONSIDE KICK: With the Alabama trailing by 13 and under four minutes to play against Ole Miss, the Tide tried its first onside kick of the season. The boot from placekicker Adam Griffith was placed perfectly with sophomore defensive back Tony Brown recovering the bounce. The successful onside kick was UA's first since Oct. 20, 2007 vs. Tennessee, when Jamie Christensen's game-opening kick was recovered successfully by linebacker Demarcus Waldrop. UA would go on to win that game, 41-17.

BLOCKED PUNT FOR BAMA VS. MTSU: Crimson Tide freshman defensive back Ronnie Harrison blocked a Middle Tennessee punt late in the second quarter of the Tide's home opener on Sept. 12 for a safety. Prior to that, the last time Alabama had a blocked punt was Sept. 21, 2013, when Kenyan Drake blocked a Colorado State punt attempt at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

SERIES NOTES

THE ALABAMA-FLORIDA SERIES: The Alabama Crimson Tide and Florida Gators will meet for the 39th time this Saturday, Dec. 5. The Crimson Tide owns the all-time advantage, 24-14 (actual 25-14), but Florida has the upper hand in Southeastern Conference Championship games, 4-3. In the most recent matchup, Alabama dominated Florida in Tuscaloosa, 42-21, that saw Blake Sims throw for 445 yards and four touchdowns, including 10 for 201 and two scores yards to Amari Cooper. The first meeting came in 1904 with the Crimson Tide claiming a 29-0 win at home in Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide dominated the series in games through 1950, earning a 9-3 mark that included a five-game winning streak (1930-31, 1948-50). Florida would claim the next two wins before the Alabama earned eight consecutive victories (1964, 1970-73, 1978-79, 1986). The Gators closed out the '80s with a victory in 1987 before dominating the 1990s, 6-3, that included three victories in the SEC Championship (1993-94, 1996). The two teams did not meet again until the 2000s, with Alabama claiming a victory in 2005 before falling to the Gators in 2006 in Gainesville and 2008 in the SEC Championship game in Atlanta. The Crimson Tide has since rallied back, earning victories in the last four matchups that includes winning the 2009 SEC title and then dominating the Gators in the three regular season contests between the two by a margin of 111-37.

SABAN VS. FLORIDA: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is 6-4 in his career against the Florida Gators, including a 1-1 mark in SEC Championship Games. He owns a 4-1 mark at Alabama with his only loss coming in the 2008 SEC Championship, 31-20. The Crimson Tide avenged that loss a season later, taking down the Gators 32-13 on the way to the Tide's 22nd SEC Championship and eventually 13th national championship. His LSU teams went a combined 2-3 from 2000-04.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP MEETINGS: Alabama and Florida will meet for the eighth time in SEC Championship Game history and the third time in the past 10 years. The Crimson Tide (10) and Gators (11) lead the league for most conference championship game appearances and have squared off the most time of any opponent with the next closest matchup being LSU and Georgia who have met only three times in the history of the SEC title game.

ALABAMA SEEKS 25TH SEC CHAMPIONSHIP: Alabama is attempting to win what would be an SEC-leading 25th conference football championship when the Crimson Tide meets Florida in the 2015 SEC Championship game. The Crimson Tide has more SEC Championships than any other school and is seeking its second conference title in as many seasons. Alabama won the first SEC Championship during the 1933 season as head coach Frank Thomas led the Crimson Tide to 5-0-1 conference record. Thomas led Alabama to four SEC Championships. Paul "Bear"

Bryant directed the Crimson Tide to six national championships and 13 SEC titles during his 25-year run in Tuscaloosa. Alabama won five straight SEC Championships from 1971-75 and captured eight of the 10 SEC Championships from 1970-79. In addition to Thomas and Bryant, Alabama has had five other coaches win SEC Championships, including Harold "Red" Drew (1953), Bill Curry (1989), Gene Stallings (1992), Mike DuBose (1999) and Nick Saban (2009, 2012 and 2014). In addition to its 24 SEC Championships, Alabama also won four Southern Conference titles (1924, 1925, 1926 and 1930), giving the school 28 conference football championships.

TIDE MAKES 10TH SEC CHAMPIONSHIP APPEARANCE:

Alabama will be playing in its 10th SEC Championship Game as the 2015 SEC Western Division champion. The Crimson Tide won the SEC Western Division title with a 7-1 league record. Alabama also won the 2008 and 2009 SEC Western Division championships with a perfect 8-0 records, before claiming last season's title with a 7-1 mark during the 2014 regular season. Alabama won SEC Western Division Championships in 1992, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1999, 2013 and 2014. In 1992, Alabama defeated Florida, 28-21, in the inaugural SEC Championship game at Birmingham's Legion Field. In 1999 and 2009, Alabama earned victories over the Gators in Atlanta. Alabama lost to Florida in 1993, 1994, 1996 and 2008 with the last three games played in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.

ALABAMA LEADS SEC WEST IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCES:

With its 10th SEC Championship game appearance, Alabama has played in more title games than any Western Division team. LSU and Auburn are second with five appearances, followed by Arkansas with three and Mississippi State with one. Alabama's 10 appearances rank second to Florida, which has appeared 11 times. The Gators lead Eastern Division squads by a wide margin, with Tennessee and Georgia second in the East at five games apiece.. Georgia, Tennessee Auburn and LSU are tied for the third-most appearances with five.

SABAN HAS BROUGHT TWO SCHOOLS TO ATLANTA:

Alabama head coach Nick Saban is one of only two coaches in SEC history to bring two teams to the SEC Championship Game. In addition to his appearances with Alabama in 2008, 2009, 2012, 2014 and 2015, Saban brought LSU in 2001 and 2003. He is 5-1 in SEC Championship Games, leading the Crimson Tide to a 42-13 win over Missouri last season, a 32-28 victory against Georgia in 2012 and a 32-13 win over Florida in 2009. He led LSU past Tennessee, 31-20, in 2001 and Georgia, 34-13, in 2003. Saban is the third Alabama coach to lead the Crimson Tide into the SEC Championship Game, joining Gene Stallings (1992, 1993, 1994 and 1996) and Mike DuBose (1999). Florida (Steve Spurrier and Urban Meyer), LSU (Saban and Les Miles) and Auburn (Tommy Tuberville, Gene Chizik, Gus Malzahn) are the only other schools to have more than one coach win the SEC Championship Game.

SABAN IN ELITE COMPANY: Alabama head coach Nick Saban and former head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant are the only coaches in history to win an SEC Championship at two different schools. Bryant won 14 SEC championships during his 33-year SEC career, first at Kentucky (1946-53) in 1951 before winning 13 at Alabama (1958-82). Saban has five SEC Championships, leading LSU to the league title in 2001 and 2003 and then guiding the Crimson Tide to the 2009, 2012 and 2014 championships.

DOMES SWEET DOME: The Crimson Tide is 18-7-1 (.712) in domed stadiums, including a 9-2 mark since 2009 and 10-4 in Coach Saban's tenure. Alabama opened the season in a dome, taking down Wisconsin, 35-17, in the AdvoCare Classic at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The Tide had three appearances in domes last season, including the season opener against West Virginia and the SEC Championship versus Missouri - both of which were in Atlanta - and the season finale against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl inside the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans.

NEUTRAL SITES: Alabama is 77-48-4 (.612) in neutral site contests. The list includes all Alabama-Auburn games not played on campus, including Legion Field from 1948-88. UA kicked off the 2015 season in Arlington, Texas, for the AdvoCare Classic against Wisconsin. The Tide played three neutral site games a season ago, opening the year with a 33-23 win over West Virginia in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game in Atlanta. In the postseason, UA claimed an SEC Championship with its 42-13 win over Missouri in Atlanta, and then ended the year with a 42-35 loss to Ohio State in the Sugar Bowl. The Crimson Tide is 12-4 in neutral site games during head coach Nick Saban's tenure at Alabama.

ALABAMA CONNECTIONS: The Florida Gators' coaching staff features three former Alabama assistants. Most notably, UF is led by celebrated Crimson Tide offensive coordinator, Jim McElwain. Under McElwain's tutelage from 2008-11, the Alabama offense helped bring one SEC championship and two national titles to Tuscaloosa while posting a 48-6 overall record. McElwain orchestrated four of the top-10 offensive yardage totals for a season in Crimson Tide history and helped develop five future first-round draft picks on offense during his time at the Capstone. Immediately following McElwain at Alabama was Doug Nussmeier, the Gators' current offensive coordinator. Nussmeier spent the 2012-13 seasons with the Crimson Tide and coached an offensive unit that helped win one SEC and national championship. On the defensive side of the ball, Florida features Chris Rumph, who led the Alabama D-line from 2011-13.

TIDE REACHES 11 WINS FOR THE 18th TIME: With the win against Auburn last weekend, Alabama secured its 11th victory of the season, marking the 19th time in program history that the Tide achieved the feat. Under head coach Nick Saban, Alabama has had six 11-win seasons (2008-09, 2011-15).

ALABAMA GOES PERFECT ON THE ROAD: With the 29-13 win over in-state rival Auburn on Nov. 28, Alabama wrapped up its fifth perfect road slate under head coach Nick Saban. The Tide also went undefeated on the road during the 2008-09, 2011-12 seasons and has lost more than one game on the road in only two seasons (2007, 2010). Including the win over Auburn, the Crimson Tide is currently riding a seven-game winning streak, rebounding from last season's early loss in Oxford to Ole Miss. Following the defeat to the Rebels, Alabama came back and defeat Arkansas (14-13), then took down Tennessee (34-20) and earned last-second victory at LSU (20-13 in OT).

ROAD RECORD vs. TOP-25 TEAMS: With the Nov. 14 win in Starkville over then No. 20 Mississippi State, Alabama is 24-2 in regular season games (does not include bowl games) away from Bryant-Denny Stadium against Associated Press top 25 teams since the start of the 2011 season. The Crimson Tide is 4-0 this season with wins over No. 20 Wisconsin in Arlington, at eighth-ranked Georgia, at College Station against No. 9 Texas A&M and most recently at No. 20 Mississippi State. Alabama was 5-1 in 2014, 4-1 in 2013, 6-0 in 2012 and 5-0 in 2011.

UNRANKED, NO PROBLEM UNDER SABAN: With the win over Auburn to close out the 2015 regular season, Alabama has now defeated 60 consecutive unranked teams under ninth-year head coach Nick Saban. The last loss to an unranked team came against Auburn to close out the 2007 season. The current streak began with a win over Colorado on Dec. 30, 2007, in the Independence Bowl. Under Saban, Alabama holds a 64-3 (60-3 after vacated wins) mark against unranked opponents, including a perfect mark in unranked matchups since 2008.

SABAN VS. SEC OPPONENTS: Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban owns a 94-26 (.783) career record in 120 games against SEC opponents spanning three different schools (Michigan State, LSU and Alabama). While at Alabama, he has compiled a 64-13 (.831) record against conference foes, and is outscoring opponents by a staggering 3,112-1,185, or 40.4-15.4 points per game. Of his 13 losses against SEC opponents while at Alabama, all but two (Florida, 2008 and South Carolina, 2010) have been by seven points or less. Saban's first matchup with an SEC team came in the 1995 Independence Bowl against LSU, where his Michigan State Spartans fell, 45-26, to the Tigers. He would later coach LSU to a 30-12 overall record against SEC opponents.

SABAN IN NEUTRAL SITE CONTESTS: Nick Saban owns a 19-10 overall mark in games played at a neutral site, including regular season and postseason games. While at Alabama, he has put together a 14-5 mark in neutral site contests. He owned a 0-3 mark to start his career at Michigan State before improving upon that mark with a 5-2 record while at LSU.

SABAN MOVING UP SEC WINS LIST: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is quickly moving up the charts for victories in SEC regular-season games against conference opponents with 93. His 93 wins rank seventh in SEC history, nine wins ahead of former Georgia head coach Mark Richt (84) on the league's list of conference wins. Each coach ahead of Saban on the list, except for former South Carolina and Florida head coach Steve Spurrier and Richt, is in the College Football Hall of Fame. Paul "Bear" Bryant tops the list with 159 conference wins at Kentucky (1946-53) and Alabama (1958-82). Spurrier is second with 131 league wins followed by Johnny Vaught (Ole Miss, 106), Vince Dooley (Georgia, 105), Ralph "Shug" Jordan (Auburn, 98) and Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee, 98). Saban ranks second in league history in SEC regular-season winning percentage at .790 (94-25). He is fifth in league history in all-time winning percentage at .810 (145-34) and ranks eighth all-time for career wins.

93-6 UNDER SABAN WHEN LEADING AT THE HALF: Alabama led Auburn, 12-6, a halftime on the way to a 29-13 victory over the Tigers to close out the regular season on Nov. 28. Under head coach Nick Saban, the Crimson Tide is 93-6 (.939) when leading at the half. Alabama has led at the half in nine of its 12 games this year, trailing Ole Miss and Arkansas, and tied at 7-7 versus Tennessee at the midway point. UA had converted 36 straight halftime leads into wins before falling at Auburn on Nov. 30, 2013. The Crimson Tide had converted 28 consecutive halftime leads into victories before seeing that streak snapped in 2010 against LSU. In 2007, Alabama held a 20-17 halftime lead before losing to LSU, 41-34, in 2007 at Bryant-Denny Stadium. In 2010, the Tide led 10-3 at the half before the Tigers rallied for a 24-20 win in Death Valley. Alabama lost 28-27 to Auburn to close out the 2010 season, after leading 24-7 at the half. The Crimson Tide is 4-8 under Saban when trailing at halftime after coming away with a victory against Arkansas on Oct. 10, despite trailing 7-3 at half. The four wins in the Saban era when trailing at the half: 34-24 over No. 7 Virginia Tech in 2009 (in Atlanta); a 24-15 over No. 9 LSU in 2009; 24-20 at Arkansas in 2010; 27-14 vs. Arkansas in 2015. His Tide teams are 4-3 when tied at halftime, and Alabama's four wins under Saban when tied at halftime: at LSU in 2008, (27-21), at Auburn in 2009 (26-21), against Tennessee in 2011 (37-6) and against Tennessee this season (19-14).

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama enters the 2015 SEC Championship Game with a 236-131-4 (.642) all-time record in 371 televised games (not including pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed circuit telecasts).

90 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 106 GAMES: With last weekend's 29-13 win over Auburn, Alabama has now played 90 nationally televised games since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest the past two seasons. The Crimson Tide began the 2015 season on ABC with the network carrying the AdvoCare Classic matchup against Wisconsin before airing live on the SEC Network for the Middle Tennessee contest. The Tide was also featured on the SEC Network for the ULM and Charleston Southern games on the same network. Alabama has also played on ESPN twice this season, for the Ole Miss and Arkansas matchups at home in Tuscaloosa. CBS has carried the most Crimson Tide games in 2015, airing six in total including last weekend's game at Auburn, at Mississippi State on Nov. 14, LSU, Tennessee, at Texas A&M and at Georgia. A season ago, UA was televised in eight games on the ABC family of networks including contests with West Virginia (ABC), FAU (SEC Network), Southern Miss (ESPN2), at Arkansas (ESPN), at Tennessee (ESPN2), Western Carolina (SEC Network), the most-viewed college football game ever on ESPN, the Iron Bowl against Auburn and the Sugar Bowl against Ohio State (ESPN). The Tide also played in six contests that were televised on CBS, including versus Florida, at Ole Miss, against Texas A&M, in the Bayou against LSU, versus top-ranked Mississippi State, and finally in the SEC Championship against the Missouri Tigers. Eleven of the Crimson Tide's 13 games in 2013 were televised nationally with the Virginia Tech, Arkansas, Mississippi State and Oklahoma games on ESPN, the Texas A&M, Tennessee, LSU and Auburn games on CBS, the Colorado State and Kentucky games on ESPN2. UA played 12 nationally televised games in 2012, with one game on ABC, six on CBS and five on ESPN. In 2011, Alabama played on CBS four times, while having one on ABC, two on ESPN and ESPN2, and one game on ESPNU. In 2010, Alabama had five games on CBS, three on ESPN, two on ESPN2, one on ABC and one on ESPNU. In 2009, UA played two games on ABC (including the BCS title game), and six on CBS, while ESPN televised two more Crimson Tide games. In 2008, Alabama had 10 of its 14 games televised nationally, including five on CBS, three on ESPN, one on ABC and one on FOX.

NYSEWANDER NOMINATED FOR BURLSWORTH TROPHY: Senior tight end Michael Nysewander was selected as one of 55 players up for the Burlsworth Trophy which is presented annually to the nation's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on. The fourth-year player has filled a role on offense as a blocker at fullback and tight end while also becoming one of the Tide's top defenders on kickoff coverage. He has helped open holes for one of the SEC's top rushing attacks and leads all special teamers in tackles on kickoffs.

SABAN TIES BRYANT FOR MOST ROAD WINS VS. TOP 10: With Alabama's 41-23 win over Texas A&M in College Station, head coach Nick Saban earned his sixth victory while at UA against a top-10 team on the road, tying Paul "Bear" Bryant for the most road wins versus a top-10 opponent in Alabama history. The victory improved Saban to 6-1 while in Tuscaloosa.

GEORGIA EQUALS LARGEST ROAD WIN OVER TOP-10 TEAM: Alabama's 28-point victory margin in the 38-10 win over Georgia on Oct. 10 is the largest winning margin ever by a Crimson Tide team against a top-10 team at an opposing site. It also stands as the second-largest victory margin ever constructed by Alabama against a top-10 team in any game, ranking behind only a 42-point defeat (49-7) of Michigan State at the Capital One Bowl that closed out the 2010 season. The previous largest winning margin for the Tide versus an SEC top-10 opponent was a 28-point victory over Florida (31-3) in Tuscaloosa in 2005.

UA TIES LARGEST ROAD WIN vs. AP TOP-10 SEC OPPONENT: The Crimson Tide's 38-10 win over Georgia on Oct. 3 marked the largest road win against an AP top-10 SEC team in program history and tied for the largest win on the road against an SEC top-10 team in the history of the poll. The 28 points tied Florida State (1987) and Tennessee (1951) for the largest margin of victory over an AP top-10 opponent on the road.

Largest Road Win vs. AP Top-10 SEC Team

TEAM-YEAR	MARGIN	SITE	SCORE
(13) ALABAMA-10/3/2015	28	(8) Georgia	38-10
(4) Florida State-11/7/1987	28	(6) Auburn	34-6
(1) Tennessee-11/24/1951	28	(9) Kentucky	28-0
(1) Miami-9/7/2002	25	(6) Florida	41-16

TIDE'S SUCCESS IN SEPTEMBER: This season, Alabama went 3-1 in game in September and has gone 30-1 in September since 2008. Adding games in August, that record improves to 33-1. The Crimson Tide's only losses in September came on Sept. 19 against Ole Miss, and before that on September 20, 2007, to Florida State in Jacksonville by a score of 21-14.

ALABAMA-WISCONSIN DRAWS HUGE RATINGS: The Sept. 5 season-opening matchup on ABC's Saturday Night Football between the Alabama Crimson Tide and Wisconsin Badgers was college football's highest-rated game of the day, achieving a 4.3 overnight rating nationally, which was up five percent from the same window last season (Oklahoma State vs. Florida State). More impressively, the game received a 46.7 rating in Birmingham which is the highest-rated regular season game on ABC dating back to 2004.

FIRST TIME PLAYERS IN ARLINGTON: Alabama had some new faces on the field for the season opener against the Wisconsin Badgers. True freshmen Shawn Burgess-Becker (DB), Lester Cotton (OL), Minkah Fitzpatrick (DB), Damien Harris (RB), Ronnie Harrison (DB), Daron Payne (DL), Calvin Ridley (WR) and Dallas Warmack (OL) all saw action. In addition, redshirt freshmen Keith Holcombe (LB), Marlon Humphrey (DB) and Christian Miller (LB) made their first appearance. Oregon State transfer Richard Mullaney (WR) made his first appearance in a Crimson Tide uniform as well.

NEW HIRES: Nick Saban made two new additions to his 2015 staff during the offseason, hiring Tosh Lupoi to coach the outside linebackers and bringing in Mel Tucker to lead the secondary. Lupoi enters a full-time role after serving as an analyst a season ago. He has previous experience as an assistant coach at Washington and Cal, where he coached future first-rounders Danny Shelton, Cameron Jordan and Tyson Alualu. Tucker joins the Crimson Tide staff following a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator of the NFL's Chicago Bears. Tucker also served as defensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2009-12) and Cleveland Browns (2008). He originally linked up with Saban as a graduate assistant at Michigan State in 1997 and stayed in East Lansing for two years.

CRIMSON TIDE PLAYERS ON NFL ROSTERS: The Alabama football program is well-represented in the NFL heading into the 2015-16 season with numerous former players dotting league rosters. The Tide has 40 former players (35 active, five injured reserve, practice squad or currently suspended) earning a spot on an NFL roster this season. The Tide currently has the third-most players on an active NFL roster, with LSU at the top with 38 players just one ahead of second place Miami (Fla.). Alabama leads all colleges in producing offensive linemen, with eight currently spotting NFL rosters.

In the last seven NFL Drafts, Alabama has had 48 players selected, including 17 players in first round, 11 in the second and third rounds, five in the fourth, seven in the fifth, one in the sixth and seven in the seventh round.

TOTAL:	203-77-1 (.724) [208-77-1, .729]

- Saban has a 188-60-1 (.757) record as a college head coach to date. He has four national championships – three at Alabama – six conference championships and 16 of his teams have played in postseason bowl games, including a trip to the BCS National Championship Game following the 2003, 2009, 2011 and 2012 seasons.

- Saban is the only coach to win four BCS national championships. He is the only coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and has won four titles in his last nine years coaching college football. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years, joining Frank Leahy (Notre Dame - 1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne (Nebraska - 1994-95, 1997). He is also just the fourth coach in the poll era to win four national championships (Paul "Bear" Bryant, John McKay and Leahy).

- In 2009, Saban produced Alabama's first national championship in 17 years by guiding the Crimson Tide to a 14-0 season with dominant wins over Florida in the SEC championship and Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game. He then followed that up with his second BCS championship in three years with a 21-0 shutout of LSU following the 2011 season at the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. He made it back-to-back BCS national championships in 2012 with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game.

- In addition to the on-field success, the 2011 team was also recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom that year with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a league record, and produced an Academic All-American in Barrett Jones.

- His most recent college head coaching stint, a five-season run at LSU, produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by the Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

- Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach.

- In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Michigan State offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

- Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

- A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have one granddaughter, Amélie, and a daughter-in-law, Kelsé.

- At Michigan State, Saban started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans continue here in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Sabans have helped raise approximately $5 million for "Nick's Kids" that has been distributed to more than 250 charities and organizations throughout the state of Alabama and the Southeast. The Sabans also built 15 homes, one for each of the Tide's national championships, with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity following the April 27, 2011, tornado that struck Tuscaloosa.

- In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were both first-generation graduates.

ARLINGTON, Texas — The University of Alabama's junior running back Derrick Henry had a career day, rushing 13 times for 147 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 3 Crimson Tide past No. 20 Wisconsin 35-17 in the Advocare Classic inside AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Henry opened up the game's scoring, breaking off a 37-yard run in the first quarter to put Alabama ahead 7-0. He put up two more scores in the third quarter, including a 56-yard touchdown rush that put him over 100 yards for the night, the sixth time in his career he has eclipsed the century mark in a game.

Senior quarterback Jake Coker, making his debut as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback, was an efficient 15-of-21 for 213 yards and one touchdown to go along with no turnovers. Sophomore Cooper Bateman also saw action in the second half, finishing 7-for-8 with 51 yards. Defensively, Alabama was dominant at the line of scrimmage, holding the Badgers to just 40 yards rushing on 21 attempts, an average of 1.9 yards per rush. Senior linebacker recorded 12 total tackles, including five solo. Additionally, Jonathan Allen had two sacks and the team broke up seven passes on the night.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The No. 2-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide opened its 2015 home slate in impressive fashion, forcing four turnovers en route to a 37-10 victory over visiting Middle Tennessee in front of 98,568 fans at Bryant-Denny Stadium. After a shaky opening quarter by both teams, the Crimson Tide was able to extend a 7-3 lead to a 23-3 halftime margin. Senior quarterback Jake Coker, who had another solid game, hit Robert Foster for a 19-yard touchdown to open the scoring. Derrick Henry added touchdown runs of 1 and 2 yards in the second quarter, and he reached the end zone a third time thanks to a 28-yard burst in the third quarter. Sophomore quarterback Cooper Bateman recorded his first touchdown pass of his career, connecting with Kenyan Drake on a shovel pass for a 14-yard scoring play as well.

Defensively, Alabama recovered all three fumbles it forced while also getting one interception, the most turnovers an Alabama defensive has forced since Sept. 8, 2012, against Western Kentucky. Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland led the team in tackles once again, recording a total of 7.5, including six solos. The secondary also broke up six passes.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The No. 2-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide could not overcome five turnovers in its SEC opener, falling by a final score of 43-37 to the No. 15/11 Ole Miss Rebels in a back-and-forth contest in front of a sellout crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa.

The opening kickoff of the game would set the tone for Alabama, as a fumble by sophomore receiver ArDarius Stewart on the return was recovered by Ole Miss. The Rebels were able to turn that into three points, the only points of the quarter. The Tide evened the score early in the second quarter, but two more turnovers in the quarter allowed the Rebels to take advantage of short fields to reach the end zone twice. Alabama was playing from behind for the rest of the game, twice getting within six points, but unable to complete the comeback.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The 12th-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide shut out the visiting ULM Warhawks by a final score of 34-0 in front of 101,323 fans at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Tide got off to another slow start offensively, getting on the board with 2:38 remaining in the first quarter thanks to a three-yard run by junior running back Derrick Henry. Senior quarterback Jacob Coker found freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley for a touchdown early in the second quarter, the first of the rookie's career. In the second half, Alabama was able to put the game away. Junior placekicker Adam Griffith made field goals of 35 and 40 yards, and Coker tossed two more touchdowns.

Defensively, the Tide dominated ULM. For the game, the Alabama defense allowed a total of 92 yards from scrimmage, the fewest yards given up by an Alabama defense since the 2012 BCS Championship Game against LSU, when the Tigers also gained 92 yards of offense. The defense also recorded six quarterback sacks and 12 tackles for loss.

ATHENS, Ga. — The 13th-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide was resourceful in all phases of the game and dominant defensively while showcasing an opportunistic offense in a 38-10 rout of 8th-ranked Georgia before a capacity crowd of 92,746 on a rainy day at Sanford Stadium. In a game played mostly in a steady rain, senior quarterback Jake Coker and the Alabama offense were efficient while the defense had both Bulldogs quarterbacks under duress all game long. Coker had a rushing and passing touchdown, junior running back Derrick Henry added another touchdown on the ground, and the Tide scored on a 50-yard interception return by junior defensive back Eddie Jackson and on a blocked punt by freshman defensive back Minkah Fitzpatrick.

Freshman receiver Calvin Ridley caught five passes for 120 yards, his first game over the century mark, and one touchdown while Henry set a new career-high in attempts (26) and rushing yards (148). The Alabama defense was a disruptive force in the wet conditions all day, forcing a total of four turnovers, including three interceptions by three different members of the secondary. Georgia's two quarterbacks completed only 11 of 31 pass attempts and averaged 3.2 yards per pass. The Tide gained 379 yards of offense (190 passing and 189 rushing) and converted 15 first downs. The Bulldogs picked up 299 yards for the game (106 passing and 193 rushing) along with converting 12 first downs.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The University of Alabama Crimson Tide football team turned in a gritty performance on Saturday night to defeat the Arkansas Razorbacks, 27-14, in the 2015 Homecoming game before a capacity crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium on the Alabama campus.

Alabama erased a 7-3 deficit late in the third quarter on an 81-yard pass from quarterback Jake Coker to wide receiver Calvin Ridley, a play that awoke a slumbering offense that had struggled to finish drives most of the game to that point. That score, with 1:39 left in the third period, turned the game in Alabama's favor as the Crimson Tide stopped an Arkansas drive at the Hogs' 43 on the ensuing possession and marched to a touchdown on a 3-yard pass from Coker to wideout Richard Mullaney for a 17-7 lead. After an Eddie Jackson interception for the Tide a few plays later, Alabama tacked on a 35-yard Adam Griffith field goal for a 20-7 edge with 10:07 left in the fourth quarter. Derrick Henry added a 1-yard touchdown run with 2:44 left, marking the 11th consecutive game in which he has scored on the ground.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17 • KYLE FIELD • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 105,733 • TV: CBS

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS — The 10th-ranked University of Alabama football team used a punishing rushing offense and big plays from its defense to defeat No. 9-ranked Texas A&M, 41-23, before a crowd of 105,733 at Kyle Field. Alabama intercepted four passes, returning three for touchdowns, to knock off the previously unbeaten Aggies. Crimson Tide running back Derrick Henry rushed for 236 yards and two touchdowns while cornerbacks Minkah Fitzpatrick and Eddie Jackson nabbed two interceptions each. Jackson returned one for a 93-yard touchdown as the Tide defense scored three times — a first in Alabama history. Fitzpatrick scored two touchdowns via interception returns, first on a 33-yard return in the first quarter, and later on a game-clinching 55-yarder. For Alabama, quarterback Jake Coker passed for 138 yards while completing 19-of-25 passes.

Alabama built a 28-6 lead midway through the second quarter with Henry rushing 15 times for 178 yards and three scores in the first half and the Tide defense holding the explosive A&M offense 189 total yards. After Fitzpatrick's interception return, Henry rumbled 55 yards to pay dirt with 5:26 left in the opening stanza before tacking on a 6-yard scoring run with 14:51 left in the half. Jackson's 93-yard scoring play extended the lead to 28-6 before A&M struck back on a 68-yard punt return touchdown by Christian Kirk with 3:03 left in the first half. Alabama led, 28-13, at halftime. A&M narrowed the Alabama lead to 28-20 early in the third period on a 3-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Allen to wide receiver Ricky Seals-Jones. The Tide extended its lead to 34-20 on a pair of Adam Griffith field goals before A&M's Taylor Bertolet hit a 36-yard field goal with 7:57 left in the fourth quarter, Bertolet's third counter of the game. Fitzpatrick stopped an Aggie drive with his second interception of the day, which he returned 55 yards for his second score of the game. It set a Crimson Tide record for interceptions return for a touchdown, both for the team and an individual.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — In a tight, hard-hitting struggle that lived up to the legacy of one of college football's most history-rich rivalries, the 8th-ranked University of Alabama football team used a clutch touchdown drive by its offense and a staunch outing from its defense to overcome a late deficit in a 19-14 win over Tennessee on Saturday afternoon before a capacity crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

After Tennessee tailback Jalen Hurd ran 12 yards for a touchdown with 5:49 left, the Tide offense responded with a decisive 71-yard march to the end zone. Tide quarterback Jake Coker completed key passes of 29 yards to wide receiver ArDarius Stewart and 15 yards to wide receiver Calvin Ridley on the drive that was punctuated by running back Derrick Henry's tough running. Henry carried five times for 35 yards on the winning drive, including the game-winning 14-yard touchdown run with 2:24 left.

Henry rushed for 143 yards and two touchdowns, Stewart had six catches for 114 yards, and Coker passed for 247 yards while completing 21-of-27 passes. Linebacker Reggie Ragland led the Tide defense with a game-high 12 tackles (eight solos), including a tackle for loss and punter J.K. Scott averaged 49.8 yards on four punts, including a 56-yarder.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7 • BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • TUSCALOOSA, ALA.
ATTENDANCE: 101,821 • TV: CBS

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The Alabama defense limited LSU running back Leonard Fournette to 31 rushing yards while the Crimson Tide offense rode a 210-yard, three-touchdown rushing performance by Derrick Henry to a 30-16 victory before a capacity crowd of 101 at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The victory moved No. 4 Alabama into a tie with No. 2 LSU for the lead in the SEC's West Division. Fournette, who entered the game as the nation's leading rusher averaging 193.1 yards rushing per game, could not get going against the Crimson Tide defense. But Henry rushed for touchdowns of two yards, one yard and seven yards while carrying the ball 38 times, the third-most carries by one player in a single game in Alabama football history.

Alabama was dominant early, breaking out to a 10-0 lead in the second quarter on a 22-yard Adam Griffith field goal and Henry's two-yard scoring rush that came after a 40-yard run in which he fended off three would-be tacklers while rumbling deep into LSU territory. But the Tigers struck back to tie it at 10-10 with an explosive passing game. Quarterback Brandon Harris hit wide receiver Travin Dural for a 40-yard touchdown pass and Trent Domingue followed with a 39-yard field goal to tie it. But Alabama took a 13-10 lead at halftime on a career-long 55-yard field goal by Griffith with 14 seconds left in the half.

After Tide linebacker Dillon Lee intercepted a Harris pass on the first play of the third quarter to set up Alabama at the LSU 28, Henry capped a touchdown drive with a 1-yard run to stake the Tide to a 20-10 lead with 13:00 left in the period. Henry extended the lead with a seven-yard scoring run with 2:47 left in the third quarter and Griffith added a 29-yard field goal with 12:45 left in the fourth period for a 30-10 Alabama lead. LSU showed life late after Henry lost a fumble at the Tide 22. The Tigers marched 22 yards in four plays with Fournette scoring on a one-yard run with 9:18 on the clock. The extra-point was blocked by the Tide's A'Shawn Robinson as the Tide held a 30-16 lead.

The Alabama defense created seven plays of negative yardage by the LSU offense in the game, including seven tackles for loss and two quarterback sacks. LSU was limited to 182 total yards in the game (54 rushing, 128 passing). The Alabama offense gained 434 total yards, including 250 rushing, and had the ball for 39:27 of game time. Tide safety Geno Matias-Smith led the Tide defense with six tackles. Alabama punter JK Scott averaged 45.0 yards on three punts with a long of 50 yards, including one punt downed inside the LSU 20. Griffith made all three field goal attempts.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14 • DAVIS WADE STADIUM • STARKVILLE, MISS.
ATTENDANCE: 62,435 • TV: CBS

STARKVILLE, Miss. — The University of Alabama defense sacked Mississippi State quarterback Dak Prescott nine times and Crimson Tide running back Derrick Henry rushed for 204 yards and two touchdowns in a 31-6 victory over the Bulldogs before an overflow crowd of 62,435 at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field.

Alabama's defense produced 12 plays for losses against a high-powered State offense, limiting the explosive Prescott to 14 rushing yards on 26 attempts and holding the Bulldogs out of the end zone for the first time in 36 games dating back to MSU's 2013 season opener. It also marked the end of a 32-game streak by Prescott in which he had scored a touchdown in a game, the longest streak in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The nine quarterback sacks by the Tide defense is the most by an Alabama defense since 1998 when it also tallied nine against Vanderbilt.

Henry scored on runs of 75 and 65 yards as the Crimson Tide offense overcame a slow start with a methodical ground game while the Tide defense held off several State scoring threats. Henry turned in over 200 yards rushing in a game for the third time in 2015, becoming the first Alabama back to do that three times in a single season.

Alabama broke on top, 7-0, early in the second quarter on a 69-yard punt return by Cyrus Jones. On Alabama's next possession, wide receiver Calvin Ridley took a pass from Coker at the Tide 49 in the middle of the field, cut back and juke a defender, then raced to the end zone to complete a 60-yard scoring play, extending the Tide lead to 14-0. State responded on the next possession with a 31-yard field goal by Westin Graves that narrowed the lead to 14-3 before Henry raced 74 yards for a touchdown to give the Tide a 21-3 lead at the half.

A 42-yard field goal by Adam Griffith gave Alabama a 24-3 lead early in the third quarter. State added a 39-yard field goal by Graves late in the third quarter before Henry sealed the verdict with a 65-yard touchdown run with 7:53 left in the game.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21 • BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • TUSCALOOSA, ALA.
ATTENDANCE: 100,611 • TV: SEC NETWORK

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The second-ranked University of Alabama Crimson Tide started fast and took care of business against Charleston Southern in a 56-6 victory before a crowd of 100,611 at Bryant-Denny Stadium. Alabama raced to a 28-0 lead after the first quarter on the way to a 49-0 halftime advantage, scoring touchdowns on its first five offensive possessions and adding scores on a pair of punt returns.

Playing only the first quarter of Saturday's game, Alabama running back Derrick Henry rushed for 68 yards and two touchdowns on only nine carries. He also caught a pass for 28 yards. Henry's two rushing touchdowns opened the scoring and Cyrus Jones' punt returns highlighted the opening half onslaught as the Tide prepared for its annual Iron Bowl clash with Auburn by dispatching the Buccaneers quickly. The Alabama defense was dominant throughout, allowing only 31 total yards and three first downs in the opening half.

Due to the big lead, Alabama's starters sat out the second half. In two quarters of play, quarterback Jake Coker completed 11 of 13 pass attempts for 155 yards and two touchdowns without throwing an interception. Wide receiver Calvin Ridley had four catches for 49 yards, wide receiver ArDarius Stewart had four catches for 45 yards and wideout Richard Mullaney had one catch for a 21-yard touchdown. The offensive starters yielded to the Tide's second-team offense late in the second period. Reserve running back Bo Scarborough had a game-high 69 rushing yards and a touchdown on 10 carries.

The Alabama defense limited CSU to 134 total yards (85 rushing, 49 passing) and eight first downs in the game, holding the Buccaneers to 1-of-10 on third downs while causing two turnovers (one fumble and one interception). Cornerback Bradley Sylve and defensive end Dalvin Tomlinson both had four tackles each to lead the Tide.

2/2/2 ALABAMA (11-1, 7-1 SEC) 29
AUBURN (6-6, 2-6 SEC) 13

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28 • JORDAN-HARE STADIUM • AUBURN, ALA.
ATTENDANCE: 87,451 • TV: CBS

AUBURN, Ala. — University of Alabama running back Derrick Henry rushed for 271 yards and a touchdown on a school-record 46 carries to lead the Crimson Tide to a 29-13 over the Auburn Tigers before a capacity crowd of 87,451 at Jordan-Hare Stadium. The victory gave the Crimson Tide the SEC's Western Division title and earned Alabama a berth in the SEC Championship Game against the Florida Gators.

With the game on the line in the final quarter, Henry rushed 19 times for 114 yards in the fourth quarter alone to lead the Tide out of a tense situation in which they were clinging to a 19-13 lead midway through the period. After Alabama took a 22-13 lead on Adam Griffith's fifth field goal of the game with 10:04 left, Henry carried on every Crimson Tide snap the rest of the way, carrying the ball on 14 consecutive plays to close out the game. Henry's totals stand as the third-most rushing yards in a game by any Alabama back, and his yardage is the most ever gained by an Auburn opponent.

In addition to Henry's heroics, Alabama's offense was keyed by an accurate passing performance by quarterback Jake Coker, who completed 17 of 26 attempts for 179 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver ArDarius Stewart caught a game-high eight catches for 81 yards and a score while wideout Calvin Ridley had 90 yards receiving on six catches. Griffith made good on all five field goal attempts in the game, the most by a Tide kicker in four seasons. The Alabama defense permitted only one big play in the game while limiting the explosive Tigers offense to 260 total yards (169 passing, 91 rushing).

Alabama outgained Auburn, 465 to 260, while the Tide rushed for 286 yards and passed for 179. The Tide notched 24 first downs to Auburn's 12, limited the Tigers to 3-of-15 on third downs, and had the ball for 35 minutes, 23 seconds, compared to Auburn's 24:37. Safety Geno Matias-Smith led the Tide with eight tackles and a forced fumble. Linebacker Reuben Foster had six stops, a pass breakup and a quarterback hurry, while Tide cornerback Marlon Humphrey had six tackles on the night. Linebacker Reggie Ragland had five stops while directing the Tide defense on the field.
