SEC PROSTATE CANCER AWARENESS: The Crimson Tide will be supporting former Southeastern Conference Commissioner Mike Slive's battle with prostate cancer by wearing a sticker on their helmets in Saturday's game.

"BLOW THE WHISTLE" ON CANCER: When Alabama takes the field against Ole Miss on Sept. 19, their coaches and players will be highlighting September as National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. The Crimson Tide will join seven other SEC programs in helping to create pediatric cancer awareness.

FACING OFF WITH THE BEST: The Crimson Tide has the toughest schedule in college football this season according to ESPN.com's College Football Power Index. Southeastern Conference teams represent 13 of the 25 toughest schedules in college football, per that same index. Alabama will face off with 10 teams who participated in a bowl game a season ago, joining only three other teams in the nation to face the same gauntlet (also, Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Virginia). Only 14 teams nationally will square off with at least nine opponents who went bowling a season ago.

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in just three regular season games without national championship implications. Following the Crimson Tide's 24-21 loss to LSU during the 2010 calendar year, UA was essentially eliminated from the national championship discussion. The final three games of that season mark the only three regular season contests without national championship implications for the Tide in the past eight years.

RETURNING SUCCESS: The Crimson Tide returns 12 starters and 54 letterwinners from its 2014 squad that finished 12-2 as the SEC Western Division and SEC champions. The 2015 team returns seven starters on a veteran defense including Jonathan Allen, Denzel Devall, Eddie Jackson, Cyrus Jones, Reggie Ragland, Jarran Reed and A'Shawn Robinson. The offense welcomes back the staples of its offensive line in center Ryan Kelly and left tackle Cam Robinson.

FIRST TIME STARTERS: The Crimson Tide had seven students make their first career start in the season-opening contest with Wisconsin, including three on defense and four on offense. Getting their first career nod on defense were Marlon Humphrey (DB), Darren Lake (DT) and Shaun Dion Hamilton (LB). The offensive starters were made up of Jake Coker (QB), Robert Foster (WR), Dominick Jackson (OL) and Ross Pierschbacher (OT).

FIRST TIME PLAYERS: Alabama had some new faces on the field for last weekend's season opener against the Wisconsin Badgers. True freshmen Shawn Burgess-Becker (DB), Lester Cotton (OL), Minkah Fitzpatrick (DB), Damien Harris (RB), Ronnie Harrison (DB), Daron Payne (DL), Calvin Ridley (WR) and Dallas Warmack (OL) all saw action. In addition, redshirt freshmen Keith Holcombe (LB), Marlon Humphrey (DB) and Christian Miller (LB) made their first appearance. Oregon State transfer Richard Mullaney (WR) made his first appearance in a Crimson Tide uniform as well.

CONSISTENTLY TOP 10: Alabama has cemented itself amongst the top 10 teams in the Associated Press Poll over the last four seasons. Entering 2015, the Crimson Tide have appeared in the AP top 10 every single week since the start of the final poll of the 2010 season, where UA finished 10th. The Tide has appeared in the top 10 for 68 consecutive weeks, the longest active streak and seventh-longest streak in the history of the poll.

Most Consecutive Weeks Ranked in AP Top 10

Team	Weeks	Years
Miami (Fla.)	137	1985-1993
Nebraska	86	1993-1998
Florida	81	1992-1997

Oklahoma	76	1984-1988
Ohio State	71	1972-1976
ALABAMA	68	2010-Present

BEATING THE BEST: Since the start of the 2008 season, the Crimson Tide is 32-11 (.744) against the Associated Press top 25, including an 18-6 (.750) mark against AP top-10 teams. This season, the Tide will face off against seven teams in the AP preseason poll, the most ranked opposition of any team in the nation. Alabama finished 5-2 in 2014 against opponents ranked in the AP top 25 after going 3-2 in 2013 and 5-1 in 2012. The Tide held a 4-1 mark vs. top-25 teams in 2011 and went 5-3 against the AP top 25 in 2010.

ALABAMA-WISCONSIN DRAWS HUGE RATINGS: The season opening matchup on ABC's Saturday Night Football between the Alabama Crimson Tide and Wisconsin Badgers was college football's highest-rated game of the day, achieving a 4.3 overnight rating nationally, which was up five percent from the same window last season (Oklahoma State vs. Florida State). More impressively, the game received a 46.7 rating in Birmingham which is the highest-rated regular season game on ABC dating back to 2004.

NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw seven former UA players selected in the 2015 NFL Draft, including first-round pick Amari Cooper who went fourth overall to the Oakland Raiders, the Tide's highest selection since Trent Richardson went third overall in 2012. Safety Landon Collins was the next to go (33rd, New York Giants) followed by T.J. Yeldon (36th, Jacksonville Jaguars) with both players being selected in the second round. Versatile back Jalston Fowler followed Yeldon, being selected in the fourth round (108th overall) by the Tennessee Titans. Also going in the fourth round was offensive lineman Arie Kouandjio who went 112th overall to the Washington Redskins. The Tide's final pair of draft picks came in the seventh round, with offensive lineman Austin Shepherd going to the Minnesota Vikings at pick 228 and linebacker Xzavier Dickson going at pick 253 to the Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots.

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: Alabama has had more draft picks over the last five years (37) than any other college in the nation. Fourteen of those picks have been first-round selections and 19 have gone in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft. The list of 37 features four Super Bowl Champions, seven Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro and one Offensive Rookie of the Year.

OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past eight seasons under the direction of head coach Nick Saban has coincided with the Crimson Tide's success in the classroom. The 2015 squad features four players who already have degrees in hand before the opening kick of the Wisconsin game. Over the past eight seasons (2008-present) Alabama has seen 94 degrees earned (graduate and undergraduate) by players still suiting up for the Crimson Tide after already having graduated. Since the 2010 season, Alabama has seen an impressive 11 players earn a Master's degree before stepping foot on the field.

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 25 seasons (1991-2015), and in 2014, Amway became the title sponsor. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches' poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011 and 2012 seasons. The Tide has compiled five UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 & 1979) and four USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011 & 2012) coaches poll national titles.

ACADEMIC PROWESS: The Crimson Tide has been a model of success on the football field, but the team has generated plenty of accolades in the classroom as well. Below are some of the highlights of the Tide's academic successes under head coach Nick Saban.

- An NCAA-leading seven members of the SEC championship team that participated in the 2015 College Football Playoff Semifinal game had already earned a master's degree.
- For the second consecutive year, Alabama football led the nation in graduates on its roster during postseason play (22 in 2014; 28 in 2013).
- Alabama's last three national title football teams included 60 players who had earned their degrees prior to game time.
- The 2014 team was recognized as one of the nation's top academic programs, ranking third in the annual academic rankings of the top 25 college football teams produced by New America, a Washington D.C. think-tank.
- The 2011 BCS national championship team had 21 graduates playing in the bowl game, which was the second most in the country.
- That same team led the SEC with 38 student-athletes being named to the 2011 SEC Academic Honor Roll
- The 2009 BCS national championship team led the country with 11 graduates playing in the bowl game.
- Alabama has led the Southeastern Conference in number of football student-athletes being named to the First-Year Academic Honor Roll in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

KELLY'S CLASSROOM SUCCESS: Senior Ryan Kelly has been a staple on the Crimson Tide offensive line for each of his four seasons in Tuscaloosa, but just as impressive are his academic talents. The Tide center graduated last summer with his undergraduate degree in marketing and is currently enrolled in classes working towards his master's degree in the same specialization, which he is scheduled to receive this December. During his undergraduate career he was named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll three times, the SEC Freshman Honor Roll and the Dean's list in both semesters of 2013. Kelly currently holds a 3.75 grade point average in his graduate studies.

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE COMMUNITY: What Alabama football does off the field is equally as important as their successes on the field. Last season alone, the Crimson Tide put in 200-plus hours of community service in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. The team volunteered their time across numerous areas last season including in schools, hospitals and on campus.

RAGLAND PUTTING IN WORK: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland has dedicated himself to volunteering in the community each of his four seasons, contributing numerous service hours each season. Across his first three years in Tuscaloosa, Ragland put together an impressive list of volunteering opportunities and has gone above and beyond what is asked of Alabama football student-athletes. In all, he has totaled more than 50 hours of community service across double-digit volunteer opportunities that include visits to hospitals, schools and churches. Ragland has also visited veterans numerous times at local VA hospitals.

ALABAMA ATHLETICS AS A WHOLE: The University of Alabama has built a total program, winning championships on the field and bringing home plenty of academic awards in the classroom.

- Since 2008, Crimson Tide athletics teams have won nine national championships in five different sports and 20 SEC championships in seven different sports.
- Alabama claimed two SEC team titles during the 2014-15 academic year - football and gymnastics.
- The overall cumulative grade point average of UA student-athletes in 2014-15 was 3.031.
- Twelve Crimson Tide teams had cumulative GPAs above 3.0 for 2014-15.
- 114 Alabama student-athletes earned SEC Academic Honor Roll status last year, a total made up of 48 in the Fall of 2014 and 66 in the Winter of 2015.
- Since 2000, UA has produced 103 Academic All-America honors, which ranks third nationally over that span behind only Nebraska (127) and Notre Dame (120). Alabama passed Penn State in 2014-15 (94) with Stanford rounding out the top five at 92.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

VETERAN DEFENSE: The Alabama defense returns seven starters from a season ago. Those seven return 330 total tackles, 40 tackles for loss and nine sacks to this year's team. Of those returning starters, five come from the Tide front seven, including Jonathan Allen who collected 11.5 tackles for a combined loss of 44 yards, both totals that ranked second on the team in 2014. Senior defensive leader and inside linebacker Reggie Ragland returns as well after recording 95 total tackles, 10.5 of which were for a loss, to rank second on last year's team.

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no defense has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama's defense, led by coordinator Kirby Smart and head coach Nick Saban, has surrendered just 120 touchdowns over the last 81 games. That is 33 fewer than the second most in the nation (LSU with 153).

Fewest TDs Allowed by Defense since 2009

Team	Touchdowns
1. ALABAMA	120
2. LSU	153
3. Florida	159

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 300: Alabama held Wisconsin to 268 yards of total offense in Saturday's season opener. In head coach Nick Saban's 109-game tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide has limited opponents to under 300 yards of total offense 67 times, or 61.5 percent of the time. UA held six of 14 opponents below 300 yards last season.

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 200: During head coach Nick Saban's last 96 games at the Capstone (since the start of the 2008 season), the Crimson Tide defense has held the opposing offense to fewer than 200 yards of total offense 32 times, most recently against Texas A&M on Oct. 18, 2014, which was the second time the Tide accomplished the feat in 2014 after doing it four times in 2013. In 2012, Alabama did so five times, and in 2011, the Tide accomplished the feat eight times, limiting Kent State to 90 yards and LSU to only 92 yards in the BCS Championship Game (the second and third times a Saban defense has limited its opponent to less than 100 yards of total offense). Alabama's best came in 2009 when the Tide held Chattanooga to 84 yards of total offense. UA held opponents under 200 yards three times in 2010, four times in 2009 and six times in 2008.

10 POINTS OR FEWER: Under head coach Nick Saban, the Crimson Tide has held opponents to 10 points or fewer 51 times since the start of the 2007 season, with its most recent against Texas A&M on Oct. 18, 2014. The Tide's shutout of Texas A&M was the second shutout of the season. Alabama held 9-of-13 opponents to 10 points or less in 2013 with three shutouts. Seven opponents were limited to 10 points or less in 2012, four of which were shutouts. Alabama was successful in holding opponents in the 0-10 point range in nine games in 2011 and eight times in 2010. UA kept opponents within that range seven times in both 2008 and 2009, and in 2007 posted two games in which it held opponents to 0-10 points. Alabama has shut out the opposition 15 times during the Saban era.

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Alabama stifled a potent Wisconsin rushing attack in the AdvoCare Classic, allowing just 40 total yards to the Badger rushers on 21 carries. The Crimson Tide continued the trend from a season ago, where the defense allowed a lowly five rushing touchdowns in 14 games, which was the fewest in the nation (UCF was second with nine). The Tide lead the nation in allowing the fewest rushing touchdowns since the start of the 2005 season, surrendering only 73. Since head coach Nick Saban arrived in 2007, the Crimson Tide has allowed 55 rushing touchdowns. Ohio State is No. 2 in that category, giving up 86 since 2007.

RUSHING DEFENSE: Limiting opposing running backs to fewer than 100 yards is nothing new for the Crimson Tide. Alabama has surrendered only 15 individual 100-yard rushing games dating back to the 2005 season, a mark that leads the nation. Since head coach Nick Saban's arrival, the Tide has allowed only 10 players to rush for more than 100 yards in a game: Ohio State's Ezekiel Elliot (230 on Jan. 1, 2015), Auburn's Tre Mason (164 on Nov. 30, 2013), Virginia Tech's Trey Edmunds (132 on Aug. 31, 2013), Georgia's Todd Gurley (122 yards on Dec. 1, 2012), LSU's Jeremy Hill (107 on Nov. 3, 2012), Georgia Southern's Dominique Swope (153 on Nov. 19, 2011), Tennessee's Tauren Poole (117 on Oct. 23, 2010), Ole Miss's BenJarvus Green-Ellis (131 on Oct. 13, 2007), Houston's Anthony Alridge (100 on Oct. 6, 2007) and Darren McFadden of Arkansas (195 on Sept. 15, 2007).

RAGLAND LEADS THE TIDE D: Reggie Ragland led Alabama defense with 12 tackles in the Wisconsin game, the fifth time in his career that he has led the Tide in stops. His other five games all came a season ago when the linebacker stepped up for the Crimson Tide and finished second on the team with 95 total tackles while accounting for 10.5 tackles for loss (-27 yards), 1.5 sacks (-12 yards), one interception, three pass breakups, three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry. His 2014 season highlights included a 13-tackle performance, with four solos and one for loss, at LSU, and 10 stops against No. 1 Mississippi State.

ALLEN RECORDS CAREER MARK IN SACKS: Junior defensive end Jonathan Allen finished the Wisconsin game with 2.0 sacks for a loss of 15 yards, both career highs. His previous mark was 1.5 sacks that he collected last season in the 59-0 blowout against Texas A&M and 12 yards loss in the 2014 season opener against West Virginia.

HAMILTON SETS CAREER HIGH IN TACKLES: Sophomore linebacker Shaun Dion Hamilton set a career high with six tackles by night's end in Arlington. His previous high was two against Texas A&M a season ago. The six tackles also eclipsed his year-long total from a season ago when the true freshman finished with three stops. Hamilton also started his first career game against the Badgers after seeing action in all 14 games as a reserve last season.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

TIDE BACKS MOVING UP IN THE RECORD BOOKS: Both Derrick Henry and Kenyan Drake moved up the career rushing list with their performances in the Wisconsin game. Henry, who led the Crimson Tide with a career-high 147 yards rushing, jumped to 27th on the UA all-time list with 1,519 yards to pass Dixie Howell (1,508 from 1933-34). With his 77 yards rushing, Drake rose from 49th to 43rd on the UA all-time career rushing yards list with 1,164 across his four seasons in Crimson and White.

CAREER HIGHS FOR HENRY: The three total touchdowns by Derrick Henry in the matchup with Wisconsin marked his career high. His previous high total was two, which he had previously accomplished three times and most recently against Missouri in the 2914 SEC Championship Game. The junior also recorded 147 yards by night's end, eclipsing his previous high of 141 that he put together in that same championship game against Missouri.

DOMINANT THREE GAMES FOR HENRY: Junior tailback Derrick Henry has been impressive in his last three contests, all inside domes. Including the Wisconsin game, he has amassed 383 yards on 46 carries for an 8.3 yards per carry average, while adding six rushing touchdowns in his last three outings. He has also collected 66 yards on four receptions.

HENRY PASSES THE CENTURY MARK, AGAIN: Derrick Henry's 147-yard performance against Wisconsin pushed him past the century mark for the sixth time in his career. Last season, he rushed for 141 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries against Missouri in the SEC Championship Game. He also went for 111 on 20 carries with a score against Florida and 113 on 17 carries with a touchdown against West Virginia. As a freshman, Henry put together a Sugar Bowl game against Oklahoma that saw the first-year back go for 100 yards on eight attempts with a touchdown, while also collecting 111 yards on six carries with a score against Arkansas.

DRAKE RETURNS WITH RESULTS FOR TIDE: Senior tailback Kenyan Drake made a significant impact on the Crimson Tide offense in the Wisconsin game, his first contest since breaking his lower left leg a season ago in the Ole Miss. Drake finished the evening with 79 yards on just 10 carries, including a long rush of 43 yards that ended in the Tide end zone. The 43-yard dash was the senior's longest run since he rushed for a 46-yard score against Arkansas in 2013. The Georgia native also caught two passes on the night for 48 yards.

RUSHING TO SUCCESS: Alabama is 70-3 since the start of the 2008 season when rushing for at least 140 yards. The only losses were at Auburn in 2013, Ole Miss and Ohio State in 2014.

BALL PROTECTION: In its past 96 games, the Tide has turned the ball over only 110 times (63 fumbles, 47 interceptions) for 1.15 turnovers per game. Since 2009, that mark is even better as the Tide has turned the ball over only 91 times in 82 games (1.11/gm). Since 2009, UA starting quarterbacks have thrown an impressively low 34 interceptions in 2,188 attempts (1 INT every 64.4 attempts). Dating back to the 2009 season, the top two running backs in the rotation have lost a fumble only 16 times. Over that 96-game span, the Tide's top two running backs have recorded 2,387 touches, losing a fumble once every 149.2 touches.

COKER'S SOLID DEBUT: Senior Jake Coker took the reins as the Crimson Tide starter at quarterback for the first time in his Alabama career and steered the team to a 35-17 win in the season opener against Wisconsin. The Mobile, Ala., native wrapped up his night 15-of-21 for 213 yards and one touchdown. His yardage total was the 10th most by a Tide quarterback in his starting debut.

FIRST HALF POINTS: With Derrick Henry's 37-yard touchdown run, the Crimson Tide has scored in the first half of the last 104 games it has played, which is the longest streak in the nation. The last time the Tide failed to score in the first half was Sept. 29, 2007, when Alabama and Florida State headed into halftime tied at 0-0. The Seminoles won the game 21-14. The Tide has scored in the first half of every game since. Alabama has an 89-15 record during the streak.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: With Derrick Henry's 37-yard rush into the end zone on Alabama's second offensive drive of last Saturday's AdvoCare Classic, the Tide has now scored in 184 consecutive games - the longest streak in program history.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

A NEW JONES RETURNS THE PUNTS: With the departure of two-year punt returner Christian Jones, senior defensive back Cyrus Jones stepped in to fill that void. In the season opener with Wisconsin, Cyrus returned four punts for 25 yards with a long return of 18 yards. Previously in his career, he had returned 12 total punts for 143 yards with a long return of 70 yards that came last season against Florida Atlantic. The four returns tied his previous career high, which he also collected against Tennessee as a freshman in 2012.

SERIES NOTES

ALABAMA-MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE SERIES: The Alabama Crimson Tide and Middle Tennessee State Blue Raiders will meet for the third time in series history. The previous two matchups have also opened the Crimson Tide's home slate both in 2002 and 2005. The most recent contest between the two teams saw Alabama come away with a 26-7 win on Sept. 3, 2005. Prior to that, the first meeting came on Aug. 31, 2002, when the Tide earned a 39-34 victory over the Blue Raiders.

SABAN VERSUS MIDDLE TENNESSEE: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is 1-0 all-time against Middle Tennessee State. The lone contest came while Saban was still at LSU, as the Tigers defeated the Blue Raiders in Baton Rouge, 30-14, in 2001.

GENERAL NOTES

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama has compiled a 226-130-4 (.633) all-time record in 360 televised games (not including pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed circuit telecasts).

79 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 95 GAMES: Following the AdvoCare Classic matchup with Wisconsin, Alabama has now participated in 79 nationally televised games since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest in 2014. In that year, UA was televised in eight games on the ABC family of networks including contests with West Virginia (ABC), FAU (SEC Network), Southern Miss (ESPN2), at Arkansas (ESPN), at Tennessee (ESPN2), Western Carolina (SEC Network), the most-viewed college football game ever on ESPN, the Iron Bowl against Auburn and the Sugar Bowl against Ohio State (ESPN). The Tide also played in six contests that were televised on CBS, including versus Florida, at Ole Miss, against Texas A&M, in the Bayou against LSU, versus top-ranked Mississippi State, and finally in the SEC Championship against the Missouri Tigers. Eleven of the Crimson Tide's 13 games in 2013 were televised nationally with the Virginia Tech, Arkansas, Mississippi State and Oklahoma games on ESPN, the Texas A&M, Tennessee, LSU and Auburn games on CBS, the Colorado State and Kentucky games on ESPN2. The Tide played 12 nationally televised games in 2012, with one game on ABC, six on CBS and five on ESPN. In 2011, Alabama played on CBS four times, while having one game on ABC, two on ESPN and ESPN2, and one game on ESPNU. In 2010, Alabama had five games on CBS, three on ESPN, two on ESPN2, one on ABC and one on ESPNU. In 2009, UA played two games on ABC (including the BCS title game), and six on CBS, while ESPN televised two more Crimson Tide games. In 2008, Alabama had 10 of its 14 games televised nationally, including five on CBS, three on ESPN, one on ABC and one on FOX.

TIDE 85-6 UNDER SABAN WHEN LEADING AT THE HALF: The Crimson Tide is 85-6 when leading at halftime under head coach Nick Saban. Alabama claimed a 35-17 victory over Wisconsin after heading into half with a 14-7 lead in the 2015 season opener. The Tide had converted 36 straight halftime leads into wins before falling at Auburn on Nov. 30, 2013. The Crimson Tide had also converted 28 consecutive halftime leads into victories before seeing that streak snapped in 2010 against LSU. The first two losses in the current run (when leading at the break) came against LSU, followed by a defeat to Auburn in 2010. In 2007, Alabama held a 20-17 halftime lead before losing to LSU, 41-34, in 2007 at Bryant-Denny Stadium. In 2010, the Tide led 10-3 at the half before the Tigers rallied for a 24-20 win in Death Valley. Alabama lost 28-27 to Auburn to close out the 2010 season, after leading 24-7 at the half. The Crimson Tide is 3-7 under Saban when trailing at halftime and 3-3 when tied at halftime. The three wins in the Saban era when trailing at the half: 34-24 over No. 7 Virginia Tech in 2009 (in Atlanta); a 24-15 over No. 9 LSU in 2009; and 24-20 at Arkansas in 2010. And Alabama's three wins under Saban when tied at halftime: at LSU in 2008, (27-21), at Auburn in 2009 (26-21) and against Tennessee in 2011 (37-6).

HOME SWEET HOME OPENERS: The Crimson Tide owns a 74-11-2 (.862) all-time record across 87 total home-opening games. Currently, UA is riding a 13-game winning streak in the team's first game inside Bryant-Denny Stadium. Under head coach Nick Saban, the Tide sports a perfect 8-0 record in home openers.

COACH SABAN IN HOME OPENERS: Nick Saban is 17-2 all-time in home openers across his four stops as a head coach. He is currently riding a 14-game winning streak in the first game inside his home stadium, with the last loss coming in 1998 when his Michigan State Spartans fell to Colorado State, 23-16. In home openers, Saban's teams are outscoring the opposition 697-228 and have shut out the competition on three occasions with the most recent shutout coming in last season's rain-shortened, 41-0 win over Florida Atlantic. While at Alabama, Saban is a perfect 8-0 overall and has recorded two of those three shutouts, including a 35-0 shutout victory over Western Kentucky in 2012. For his career, he owns a 1-0 record at Toledo, 3-2 mark at Michigan State, and perfect records of 5-0 and 8-0 at LSU and Alabama, respectively.

ALABAMA VS. CONFERENCE USA: Alabama has played in 61 total games in program history against the current members of Conference USA and owns a 47-12-2 record overall in those contests. The Crimson Tide has played nine of the 14 current members, with Charlotte, Marshall, Old Dominion, Texas-San Antonio and UAB being the only teams the Tide has not met. UA's most common C-USA opponent is Southern Miss, with the two programs meeting a total of 41 times. Alabama owns the advantage in all series except for Rice, where the Owls own the 3-0 advantage all-time, and the Louisiana Tech matchups which is a split at 2-2. The most recent matchups between UA and C-USA opponents came last season when the Tide claimed a 41-0 win over FAU to open its home slate and then took down Southern Miss a week later, 52-12.

SABAN VS. CONFERENCE USA: Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban has played in 10 combined games against current members of Conference USA across his time at LSU and while at Alabama. He is currently riding a nine game winning streak after falling in his very first game against C-USA opponent. During his years in Tuscaloosa, the ninth year head coach of the Tide has led the team to a perfect 8-0 mark against C-USA competition. Saban-coached teams have outscored Conference USA foes 402-70 and have shutout three total opponents. In Baton Rouge, Saban split an even 1-1, falling to UAB by a score of 13-10 in 2000 and then defeating Louisiana Tech, 49-10, in 2003.

SABAN MOVING UP SEC WINS LIST: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is quickly moving up the charts for victories in SEC regular-season games with 86. His 86 wins rank seventh in SEC history, five wins ahead of current Georgia head coach Mark Richt (81) on the league's list of conference wins. Each coach ahead of them on the list, except for South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier, is in the College Football Hall of Fame. Paul "Bear" Bryant tops the list with 159 conference wins at Kentucky (1946-53) and Alabama (1958-82). Spurrier is second with 132 league wins followed by John Vaught (Ole Miss, 106), Vince Dooley (Georgia, 105), Ralph "Shug" Jordan (Auburn, 98) and Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee, 98). Saban ranks second in league history in SEC regular-season winning percentage at .782 (86-24). He is fifth in league history in all-time winning percentage at .807 (134-32) and tied with Georgia's Mark Richt for 11th in career wins.

NEW HIRES: Nick Saban made two new additions to his 2015 staff during the offseason, hiring Tosh Lupoi to coach the outside linebackers and bringing in Mel Tucker to lead the secondary. Lupoi enters a full-time role after serving as an analyst a season ago. He has previous experience as an assistant coach at Washington and Cal, where he coached future first-rounders Danny Shelton, Cameron Jordan and Tyson Alualu. Tucker joins the Crimson Tide staff following a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator of the NFL's Chicago Bears. Tucker also served as defensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2009-12) and Cleveland Browns (2008). He originally linked up with Saban as a graduate assistant at Michigan State in 1997 and stayed in East Lansing for two years.

CRIMSON TIDE PLAYERS ON NFL ROSTERS: The Alabama football program is well-represented in the NFL heading into the 2015-16 season with numerous former players dotting league rosters. The Tide has 40 former players (active, injured reserve or practice squad) earning a spot on an NFL roster this season. In the last seven NFL Drafts, Alabama has had 48 players selected, including 17 players in first round, 11 in the second and third rounds, five in the fourth, seven in the fifth, one in the sixth and seven in the seventh round.

10-WIN SEASONS: With last season's 48-14 victory over Western Carolina, Alabama reached the 10-win milestone for the seventh consecutive season. The seven straight years with 10 wins extends the school record that was set by the Tide in 2013. Prior to finishing that season with 11 wins, the previous total for most consecutive 10-win seasons was five, set by coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's teams from 1971-75. In 119 seasons, the Tide has won 10 or more games 34 times, one back of Oklahoma (35) for the most 10-win seasons in college football history. Alabama has produced nine 10-win seasons since 2002 (2002, 2005, 2008-2014). Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban is the 11th coach in school history to lead his team to a 10-win season and is the fifth coach in school history to have more than one 10-win season. Bryant had a school-record 12 10-win seasons at Alabama, while Saban is second with seven. Other coaches to reach the milestone include Gene Stallings (4), Wallace Wade (2), Frank Thomas (2), Harold "Red" Drew (1), Ray Perkins (1), Bill Curry (1), Mike DuBose (1), Dennis Franchione (1) and Mike Shula (1).

COLLEGE:	178-59-1 (.750) [183-59-1, .755]
TOTAL:	193-76-1 (.717) [198-76-1, .722]

- Saban has a 178-59-1 (.750) record as a college head coach to date. He has four national championships – three at Alabama – six conference championships and 16 of his teams have played in postseason bowl games, including a trip to the BCS National Championship Game following the 2003, 2009, 2011 and 2012 seasons.

- Saban is the only coach to win four BCS national championships. He is the only coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and has won four titles in his last nine years coaching college football. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years, joining Frank Leahy (Notre Dame - 1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne (Nebraska - 1994-95, 1997). He is also just the fourth coach in the poll era to win four national championships (Paul "Bear" Bryant, John McKay and Leahy).

- In 2009, Saban produced Alabama's first national championship in 17 years by guiding the Crimson Tide to a 14-0 season with dominant wins over Florida in the SEC championship and Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game. He then followed that up with his second BCS championship in three years with a 21-0 shutout of LSU following the 2011 season at the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. He made it back-to-back BCS national championships in 2012 with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game.

- In addition to the on-field success, the 2011 team was also recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom that year with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a league record, and produced an Academic All-American in Barrett Jones.

- His most recent college head coaching stint, a five-season run at LSU, produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by the Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

- Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach.

- In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Michigan State offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

- Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

- A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have one granddaughter, Amélie, and a daughter-in-law, Kelsé.

- At Michigan State, Saban started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans continue here in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Sabans have helped raise approximately $5 million for "Nick's Kids" that has been distributed to more than 250 charities and organizations throughout the state of Alabama and the Southeast. The Sabans also built 15 homes, one for each of the Tide's national championships, with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity following the April 27, 2011, tornado that struck Tuscaloosa.

- In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were both first-generation graduates.
