ALABAMA (6-1, 3-1 SEC) CRIMSON TIDE		TENNESSEE (3-3, 1-2 SEC) VOLUNTEERS

THE GAME: The No. 8/8 University of Alabama football team returns home for its annual rivalry game commonly referred to as the "Third Saturday in October" with the Tennessee Volunteers. The game is scheduled for a 2:30 p.m. CT kickoff on CBS with Verne Lundquist, Gary Danielson and Allie LaForce calling the action. Eli Gold and Phil Savage will handle the radio call on the Crimson Tide Sports Network, with Chris Stewart serving as the sideline reporter. ESPN Radio will be airing the game nationally, with Bill Rosinski, David Norrie and Joe Schad calling all the action.

RANKINGS: Alabama enters week eight ranked up two spots from last week at No. 8 in both the Associated Press and Amway Coaches Poll. Tennessee is unranked.

TENNESSEE: The Volunteers travel to Tuscaloosa with a 3-3 (1-2 SEC) record after a bye last weekend. Tennessee began 2015 with a 59-30 thumping of Bowling Green to open the season. The Vols followed with a hard-luck loss, 31-24, in a double-overtime game against a ranked Oklahoma team. UT would next take down Western Carolina, 55-10, in Knoxville before falling by one, 28-27, to the Florida Gators in Gainesville. Tennessee returned home for a matchup with Arkansas, but would fall to the Razorbacks, 24-20, before bouncing back with a 38-31 win over the Georgia Bulldogs inside Neyland Stadium. Butch Jones leads the Volunteer football team and owns a 15-16 record now in his third season at Tennessee. The Vols return 10 total starters and 42 lettermen from last season's squad that finished 5-7 overall.

SERIES HISTORY: Alabama and Tennessee will meet for the 98th time in a series that the Crimson Tide leads, 51-38-7 (52-37-8 actual). The rivalry dates back to the 1901 season, when the two teams first met in Birmingham and finished in a 6-6 tie. The Crimson Tide has won the last eight meetings and seeks its ninth straight series win for the first time since an 11-game winning streak from 1971-81. Last season, Alabama left Knoxville with a 34-20 victory in the most recent matchup between the two teams. The Tide and Vols have met every year since 1928, with the exception of the 1943 season when neither school fielded a football team due to World War II.

NEXT GAME: Alabama will head into its first bye week of the 2015 season before a matchup with LSU. The Crimson Tide and Tigers will meet for the 80th time in series history on Nov. 7 in Tuscaloosa. Alabama owns the all-time advantage, 49-25-5, and is currently riding a four-game winning streak that began with the Tide's 21-0 win over the Tigers in the 2012 BCS National Championship, earning Alabama its NCAA-leading 15th national championship.

FACING OFF WITH THE BEST: Entering the 2015 season, the Crimson Tide was tasked with the toughest schedule in college football, according to ESPN.com's College Football Power Index. SEC teams represented 13 of the 25 toughest schedules in college football, per that same index. Alabama faces off with 10 teams who participated in a bowl game a season ago, joining only three other teams in the nation to face the same gauntlet (Arkansas, Vanderbilt, Virginia). Only 14 teams nationally square off with at least nine opponents who went bowling in 2014.

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in only three regular season games without national championship implications. Following the Crimson Tide's 24-21 loss to LSU during the 2010 calendar year, UA was essentially eliminated from the national championship discussion. The final three games of that season mark the only three regular season contests without national championship implications for the Tide in the past eight years (92 of 95 games).

RETURNING SUCCESS: The 2015 Crimson Tide returned 12 starters and 54 letterwinners from its 2014 squad that finished 12-2 as the SEC Western Division and SEC champions. The 2015 team returned seven starters on a veteran defense including Jonathan Allen, Denzel Devall, Eddie Jackson, Cyrus Jones, Reggie Ragland, Jarran Reed and A'Shawn Robinson. The offense welcomed back the staples of its offensive line in center Ryan Kelly and left tackle Cam Robinson.

FIRST TIME STARTERS: Many new faces have earned a start this season for the Crimson Tide. In the Arkansas contest, freshman nose guard Daron Payne made his first career start. Prior to the game with the Razorbacks, the most recent starting nods went to a pair of wideouts that made their first career start against ULM, including senior Richard Mullaney and freshman Calvin Ridley. Quarterback Cooper Bateman made his first career start against Ole Miss. In the Middle Tennessee contest, Minkah Fitzpatrick (DB) and Dakota Ball (TE) each made their first career starts. In the season opener with Wisconsin, seven students made their first career start, including three on defense and four on offense. Getting their first career nod on defense were Marlon Humphrey (DB), Darren Lake (DT) and Shaun Dion Hamilton (LB). The offensive starters were made up of Jake Coker (QB), Robert Foster (WR), Dominick Jackson (OL) and Ross Pierschbacher (OT).

BEATING THE BEST: With the win over No. 9 Texas A&M on Oct. 17, Alabama owns a 35-13 (.729) mark against the Associated Press top 25, including a 19-7 (.731) record against AP top-10 teams since 2007. This season, the Tide faces off against seven teams in the AP preseason poll, the most ranked opposition of any team in the nation. Alabama finished 5-2 in 2014 against opponents ranked in the AP top 25 after going 3-2 in 2013 and 5-1 in 2012. The Tide held a 4-1 mark vs. top-25 teams in 2011 and went 5-3 against the AP top 25 in 2010.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES OF BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM: Alabama has won to 19 of its last 20 games at its home stadium. Prior to the Sept. 19 loss to Ole Miss, the Crimson Tide had not lost a game at home since falling to Texas A&M in 2012. Alabama boasts the fifth-best home winning percentage in the FBS at Bryant-Denny Stadium with an .817 mark (242-53-3) since the stadium opened in 1929. Baylor's McLane Stadium, which opened last season (9-0, 1.000), is the leader while Marshall's Edwards Stadium (.849) and Georgia Southern's Paulson Stadium (.848) rank second and third, respectively. Boise State's home field, Albertsons Stadium, comes in fourth with an .829 winning percentage, just ahead of Alabama.

Home Winning Percentage (Current Stadium)

UNRANKED, NO PROBLEM UNDER SABAN: With the win over an unranked Arkansas team on Oct. 10, Alabama has now defeated 57 consecutive unranked teams under ninth-year head coach Nick Saban. The last loss to an unranked team came against Auburn to close out the 2007 season. The current streak began with a win over Colorado on Dec. 30, 2007, in the Independence Bowl. Under Saban, Alabama holds a 61-3 (57-3 after vacated wins) mark against unranked opponents, including a perfect mark in unranked matchups every season since 2008.

ALABAMA HAS MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 90 games, the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The Crimson Tide won 12 games in 2008, followed by a perfect 14-0 record in 2009, a 10-3 mark in 2010 and a 12-1 record in 2011. Alabama finished 13-1 in 2012, 11-2 in 2013 and 12-2 in 2014. Boise State is second with 86 wins while Oregon is third with 84 victories.

Alabama was 5-1 in 2014, 4-1 in 2013, 6-0 in 2012 and 5-0 in 2011. Alabama is 3-0 all time in games at Texas A&M (1988, 2013 and 2015).

SABAN PASSES BRYANT FOR MOST ROAD WINS VS. TOP-10: With Alabama's 41-23 win over Texas A&M in College Station, head coach Nick Saban earned his sixth victory while at UA against a top-10 team on the road, passing Paul "Bear" Bryant for the most road wins versus a top-10 opponent in Alabama history. The victory improved Saban to 6-1 while at Alabama.

CRIMSON TIDE STIFLES A&M OFFENSE: Alabama traveled to College Station last Saturday to face off with an explosive Texas A&M offense. Entering the game, the Aggies had scored at least 28 points in every game and were near the tops of every offensive category in the SEC. The Crimson Tide limited the Aggies to 23 points and held A&M below numerous season averages on offense. The UA defense also allowed just one offensive touchdown on the day. Below is a breakdown of Alabama's defensive performance.

Texas A&M Offensive Output

STATISTIC	SEASON AVERAGE	vs. ALABAMA
Points per Game	39.2	23
Rushing Yards per Game	188.0	32
Passing Yards per Game	292.4	284
Total Offense per Game	480.4	316

NON-OFFENSIVE TDs IN THE SABAN ERA: The Crimson Tide took a school-record three interceptions back for a touchdown against Texas A&M, first a 33-yard return by Minkah Fitzpatrick, then a return of 93 yards by Eddie Jackson and finally a 55 yard return to seal the victory, once again by Fitzpatrick. The three scores marked the 39th, 40th and 41st non-offensive touchdowns of the Nick Saban era. This season, the Tide has recorded five non-offense touchdowns through only seven games. Prior to last weekend in College Station, UA returned both a blocked punt and an interception for touchdowns against Georgia. Since Saban took over in 2007, the Crimson Tide has garnered 16 interception returns, nine punt returns, five kickoff returns, four fumble returns and four blocked punt returns for a touchdown. Alabama had one non-offensive touchdown in 2014. The Tide had seven non-offensive touchdowns in 2013, including three in the season opener against Virginia Tech, marking the first time the Crimson Tide has done so in a game since Sept. 30, 1995, against Georgia.

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 25 seasons (1991-2015), and in 2014, Amway became the title sponsor. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches' poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011 and 2012 seasons. The Tide has compiled five UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 & 1979) and four USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011 & 2012) coaches poll national titles.

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: Alabama has had more draft picks over the last five years (37) than any other college in the nation. Fourteen of those picks have been first-round selections and 19 have gone in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft. The list of 37 features four Super Bowl Champions, seven Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro and one Offensive Rookie of the Year.

OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past eight seasons under the direction of head coach Nick Saban has coincided with the Crimson Tide's success in the classroom. The 2015 squad features nine players who already had degrees in hand before the opening kick of the Wisconsin game. Over the past eight seasons (2008-present) Alabama has seen 94 degrees earned (graduate and undergraduate) by players still suiting up for the Crimson Tide after already having graduated. Since the 2010 season, Alabama has seen an impressive 11 players earn a master's degree before stepping foot on the field.

ACADEMIC PROWESS: The Crimson Tide has been a model of success on the football field, but the team has generated plenty of accolades in the classroom as well. Below are some of the highlights of the Tide's academic successes under head coach Nick Saban.

- An NCAA-leading seven members of the SEC championship team that participated in the 2015 College Football Playoff Semifinal game had already earned a master's degree.
- For the second consecutive year, Alabama football led the nation in graduates on its roster during postseason play (22 in 2014; 28 in 2013).
- Alabama's last three national title football teams included 60 players who had earned their degrees prior to game time.
- The 2014 team was recognized as one of the nation's top academic programs, ranking third in the annual academic rankings of the top 25 college football teams produced by New America, a Washington D.C. think-tank.
- The 2011 BCS national championship team had 21 graduates playing in the bowl game, which was the second most in the country.
- That same team led the SEC with 38 student-athletes being named to the 2011 SEC Academic Honor Roll
- The 2009 BCS national championship team led the country with 11 graduates playing in the bowl game.
- Alabama has led the Southeastern Conference in number of football student-athletes being named to the First-Year Academic Honor Roll in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

KELLY'S CLASSROOM SUCCESS: Senior Ryan Kelly has been a staple on the Crimson Tide offensive line for each of his four seasons in Tuscaloosa, but his academic talents are equally impressive. The Tide center graduated last summer with his undergraduate degree in marketing and is currently enrolled in classes working towards his master's degree in the same specialization, which he is scheduled to receive this December. During his undergraduate career he was named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll three times, the SEC Freshman Honor Roll and the Dean's list in both semesters of 2013. Kelly currently holds a 3.75 grade point average in his graduate studies.

CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST - RYAN KELLY: Ryan Kelly was selected by the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Football Hall of Fame as a semifinalist for the 2015 William V. Campbell Trophy, which recognizes the best football scholar-athlete in the nation. He is one of 56 semifinalists for the trophy in the FBS division. The NFF will announce 15 finalists on Oct. 29, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship with the winner eventually receiving an increased scholarship of $25,000 on Dec. 8 at the 58th NFF Annual Awards Dinner.

Kelly has excelled on and off the field. The Tide's third-year starter at center completed his undergrad degree in the summer of 2014 and is currently pursuing his master's. An active member in the community, Kelly has also put together numerous hours of service in Tuscaloosa but also at home in West Chester, Ohio.

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE COMMUNITY: What Alabama football does off the field is equally as important as their successes on the field. Last season alone, the Crimson Tide put in 200-plus hours of community service in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. The team volunteered their time across numerous areas last season including in schools, hospitals and on campus.

ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM NOMINEE - O.J. HOWARD: O.J. Howard was nominated for the 2015 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. The award is one of the most esteemed off-the-field honors in college football, and recognized an all-time high 197 nominees for the 2015 season. The final roster of 22 award recipients will be unveiled in September.

While at UA, Howard has participated in a wide range of community service activities, both locally and across the state. The junior has spent extensive time working with children as well as the elderly in his two years as a member of the Crimson Tide football team. He regularly visits children's hospitals in Birmingham and also spent time at Children's of New Orleans on the team's two bowl trips the past two seasons. He has also volunteered numerous hours at retirement homes and regularly visits the Tuscaloosa VA hospital.

RAGLAND VOLUNTEERING IN THE COMMUNITY: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland has dedicated himself to volunteering in the community each of his four seasons, contributing numerous service hours each season. Across his first three years in Tuscaloosa, Ragland has accumulated an impressive list of volunteering opportunities and has gone above and beyond what is asked of Alabama football student-athletes. In all, he has totaled more than 50 hours of community service across double-digit volunteer opportunities that include visits to hospitals, schools and churches. Ragland has also visited veterans numerous times at local VA hospitals.

SENIOR CLASS AWARD NOMINEE - REGGIE RAGLAND: Reggie Ragland was selected as one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award, presented annually to student-athletes who excel both on and off the field. The award recognizes notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. Ragland returned to the Capstone in 2015 to complete his degree in consumer affairs, fulfilling a promise he made to his mother that he would earn a degree while at The University of Alabama. He has also stood out not only on the football field, but also in the community where he has put in 50-plus hours of community service.

The acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The 30 candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot for media, coaches and fans to select the award's winner.

ALABAMA ATHLETICS AS A WHOLE: The University of Alabama has built a total program, winning championships on the field and bringing home plenty of academic awards in the classroom.

- Since 2008, Crimson Tide athletics teams have won nine national championships in five different sports and 20 SEC championships in seven different sports.
- Alabama claimed two SEC team titles during the 2014-15 academic year - football and gymnastics.
- The overall cumulative grade point average of UA student-athletes in 2014-15 was 3.031.
- Twelve Crimson Tide teams had cumulative GPAs above 3.0 for 2014-15.
- 114 Alabama student-athletes earned SEC Academic Honor Roll status last year, a total made up of 48 in the Fall of 2014 and 66 in the Winter of 2015.
- Since 2000, UA has produced 103 Academic All-America honors, which ranks third nationally over that span behind only Nebraska (127) and Notre Dame (120). Alabama passed Penn State in 2014-15 (94) with Stanford rounding out the top five at 92.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

VETERAN DEFENSE: The Alabama defense includes seven starters from a season ago. Those seven return 330 total tackles, 40 tackles for loss and nine sacks to this year's team. Of those returning starters, five come from the Tide front seven, including Jonathan Allen who collected 11.5 tackles for a combined loss of 44 yards, both totals that ranked second on the team in 2014. Senior defensive leader and inside linebacker Reggie Ragland returns as well after recording 95 total tackles, 10.5 of which were for a loss, to rank second last year.

3-and-OUT: The Alabama defense has totaled 36 three-and-outs in the past four games (9.0 per game) to move the Crimson Tide into first place nationally at 6.86 per game. The Tide has forced a three-and-out on 48-of-109 drives this season (44.0 percent), including 36-of-65 in the past four games (55.4 percent).

3-and-Outs

Average	Team (Total/Games)	Percentage of Drives
6.86	ALABAMA (48/7)	44.0 (48-109)
6.50	Clemson (39/6)	45.3 (39-86)
6.29	Marshall (44/7)	42.7 (44-103)
6.29	Boise State (44/7)	37.9 (44-116)
6.17	Duke (37/6)	45.7 (37-81)

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no defense has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama's defense, led by coordinator Kirby Smart and head coach Nick Saban, has surrendered only 130 touchdowns over the last 87 games. That is 39 fewer than the second most in the nation (LSU with 169).

Fewest TDs Allowed by Defense since 2009

Team	Touchdowns
1. ALABAMA	130
2. LSU	169
3. Florida	171

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 300: On Oct. 10, Alabama limited Arkansas to 220 yards of total offense, the fifth time the Tide has kept a team under 300 in 2015. UA held Georgia to 299 yards, ULM to 92 yards of offense and also limited Middle Tennessee to 275 yards of offense, one week after holding Wisconsin to 268 yards of total offense in the season opener. In head coach Nick Saban's 115-game tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide has limited opponents to under 300 yards of total offense 71 times, or 62.0 percent of the time. UA held six of its 14 opponents below 300 yards last season.

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 200: During head coach Nick Saban's last 101 games at the Capstone (since the start of the 2008 season), the Crimson Tide defense has held the opposing offense to fewer than 200 yards of total offense 33 times, most recently against ULM on Sept. 26. The Tide accomplished the feat twice last season, including against Texas A&M on Oct. 18 and versus Florida Atlantic in a weather-shortened contest to open the home schedule on Sept. 6. Alabama limited opponents to 200 or less four times in 2013. In 2012, UA did so five times, and in 2011, the Tide accomplished the feat eight times, limiting Kent State to 90 yards and LSU to only 92 yards in the BCS Championship Game (the second and third times a Saban defense had limited its opponent to less than 100 yards of total offense). Alabama's best came in 2009 when the Tide held Chattanooga to 84 yards of total offense. UA held opponents under 200 yards three times in 2010, four times in 2009 and six times in 2008.

D-LINE BATTING PASSES: Alabama's heralded defensive line has found multiple ways of affecting the quarterback seven games into the 2015 season. The Tide's defensive front leads the nation in batted passes with 15 among its defensive ends and nose guards. Quick passing games have hindered Alabama's ability to sack the quarterback, even though UA ranks second in the SEC in sacks with 22 total, or 3.14 per game (15th nationally). Dalvin Tomlinson (DE) leads the nation among defensive linemen with six pass breakups this season (0.86 per game). Jonathan Allen (DE) is tied for third nationally among defensive linemen with .57 PBUs per game (four each). Jarran Reed (DE) has two while A'Shawn Robinson (DE), Da'Ron Payne (DE) and Darren Lake (NG) have one each. Add rush ends (OLBs) Denzel Devall (2) and Tim Williams (1) and Alabama's pass breakups among players with their hand in the dirt swells to 17.

LEADING THE NATION IN SHUTOUTS: The Alabama defense has shut out its opponents 16 times since the start of the 2008 season. More recently, the Crimson Tide defense has shut out 13 teams in the past five seasons, a total that leads the nation. The Tide recorded its first shutout of the 2015 season at home against Louisiana-Monroe on Sept. 28, blanking the Warhawks and limiting the ULM offense to 92 total yards by day's end.

10 POINTS OR FEWER: Under head coach Nick Saban, the Crimson Tide has held opponents to 10 points or fewer 54 times since the start of the 2007 season, most recently in the 38-10 win over Georgia in Athens. The Tide notched a 34-0 shutout win over the ULM Warhawks on Sept. 26, and Prior to that contest, Alabama limited Middle Tennessee to 10 points in the Tide's 37-10 win over the Blue Raiders on Sept. 12. Last year, Alabama shut out two opponents, including Texas A&M on Oct. 18. Alabama held 9-of-13 opponents to 10 points or less in 2013 with three shutouts. Seven opponents were limited to 10 points or less in 2012, four of which were shutouts. Alabama was successful in holding opponents in the 0-10 point range in nine games in 2011 and eight times in 2010. UA kept opponents within that range seven times in both 2008 and 2009, and in 2007 posted two games in which it held opponents to 0-10 points. Alabama has shut out the opposition 16 times during the Saban era.

HARD TO RUN ON: Alabama's run defense is once again near the top in the nation. The Crimson Tide rank third nationally and first in the SEC, surrendering just 70.9 yards per game after facing some of the best ground games in the nation (Wisconsin, Georgia, Arkansas). The Tide is allowing just 2.44 yards per carry. Alabama has held all seven teams in 2015 at least 69 yards below their season rushing average. The Tide held Wisconsin to 280 yards below their 2014 rushing yards average and then Middle Tennessee (156 yards), Ole Miss (185 yards), ULM (115 yards), Georgia (69 yards), Arkansas (160 yards) and Texas A&M (156 yards) below their 2015 averages entering each game. In all, Alabama has held its seven opponents to an average of 160.1 yards per game below their average entering the game.

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Running the ball is no easy task against the Alabama defense with the Tide yielding only three rushing scores this season. The Tide has limited opposing backs to just 12 rushes of 10 yards or more, ranking near the top nationally. A week ago, the Crimson Tide limited Texas A&M to 32 yards on 25 carries with the Aggies leading rusher finishing with 48 yards on 13 carries. Alabama held Arkansas to 44 yards rushing on 25 carries with the leading rusher collecting only 26 yards. On Sept. 26 against ULM, Alabama limited the Warhawks only nine yards on 31 attempts. Prior to that, on Sept. 12, the Crimson Tide held Middle Tennessee to 86 rushing yards on 31 attempts a week after stifling a potent Wisconsin rushing attack in the AdvoCare Classic, allowing only 40 total yards to the Badger rushers on 21 carries. The Crimson Tide continued the trend from a season ago, where the defense allowed only five rushing touchdowns in 14 games, the fewest in the nation (UCF was second with nine). The Tide lead the nation in allowing the fewest rushing touchdowns since the start of the 2005 season, surrendering only 74. Since head coach Nick Saban arrived in 2007, the Crimson Tide has allowed 58 rushing touchdowns. Ohio State is No. 2 in that category, giving up 93 since 2007.

RUSHING DEFENSE: Alabama has surrendered only 16 individual 100-yard rushing games dating back to the 2005 season, a mark that leads the nation. Since head coach Nick Saban's arrival, the Tide has allowed only 11 players to rush for more than 100 yards in a game: Georgia's Nick Chubb (146 on Oct. 3, 2015), Ohio State's Ezekiel Elliot (230 on Jan. 1, 2015), Auburn's Tre Mason (164 on Nov. 30, 2013), Virginia Tech's Trey Edmunds (132 on Aug. 31, 2013), Georgia's Todd Gurley (122 yards on Dec. 1, 2012), LSU's Jeremy Hill (107 on Nov. 3, 2012), Georgia Southern's Dominique Swope (153 on Nov. 19, 2011), Tennessee's Tauren Poole (117 on Oct. 23, 2010), Ole Miss's BenJarvus Green-Ellis (131 on Oct. 13, 2007), Houston's Anthony Alridge (100 on Oct. 6, 2007) and Darren McFadden of Arkansas (195 on Sept. 15, 2007).

207 INTERCEPTION RETURN YARDS: The Crimson Tide's 207 interception return yards against Texas A&M last weekend is an Alabama single-game record. The return yards also ranked as the third-most in Southeastern Conference history and the most since 1971 when Tennessee had 214 against South Carolina.

THIRD-LONGEST PICK-SIX IN ALABAMA HISTORY: Eddie Jackson's 93-yard pick-six in the second quarter of the Texas A&M game was the third-longest interception return in Alabama history. Jackson has returned interceptions this season for a total of 230 yards, setting a Crimson Tide record for interception return yards in a season. It broke a 63-year-old record set in 1952 by Hootie Ingram, who registered 163 yards across 10 total picks for the season.

FITZPATRICK EARNS PAIR OF AWARDS: Freshman defensive back Minkah Fitzpatrick was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week, as presented by Generation UCAN, as well as the Southeastern Conference's Freshman of the Week following his standout performance against Texas A&M. The first-year starter returned two interceptions for touchdowns against the Aggies, going for 33 and 55 yards on the scores. The two pick-sixes marked the first time in Alabama history (via records verified back to 1948) that two interceptions were returned for touchdowns by the same player. He also finished with two solo tackles and helped limited A&M to only 316 yards of total offense, 164 yards below their season average.

RAGLAND LEADING THE TIDE D: Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland has been a force on the defense. The Tide's captain in the middle has a team-leading 59 tackles, including 4.0 for a loss (-16 yards), to go with three pass breakups, three quarterback hurries, two sacks (-8 yards) and two forced fumbles. In five of the seven games during the 2015 season, Ragland led the Alabama defense in stops, including a season-high nine tackles against Texas A&M and Ole Miss. Against the Aggies, he helped stifle a potent A&M offensive attack, notching nine total stops (eight solo), one sack (-5 yards) and 1.5 tackles for a loss (-8 yards) to mark the ninth time for his career that Ragland has led the Tide in tackles. He also tied for the team lead against Georgia with eight stops and backed that up with another eight tackles in the win over Arkansas. His other four team-leading games came a season ago when the linebacker stepped up for the Crimson Tide and finished second on the team with 95 total tackles while accounting for 10.5 tackles for loss (-27 yards), 1.5 sacks (-12 yards), one interception, three pass breakups, three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and a quarterback hurry.

FITZPATRICKS TWO INT RETURNS FOR SCORES: Freshman cornerback Minkah Fitzpatrick returned two interceptions for touchdowns against Texas A&M, going 33 and 55 yards for scores. Fitzpatrick is the only player in Alabama history (via records verified back to 1948) to return two interceptions for scores in the same game. His 88 yards also ranked tied for seventh in Alabama single-game history.

JACKSON SETS ALL-TIME MARK FOR INT RETURN YARDS: Eddie Jackson's 119 return yards on interceptions against Texas A&M is the most yards in a single game by an Alabama defender. The previous record high was 98 by Mark McMillian against Chattanooga on Oct. 5, 1991. His 230 yards on five picks this season are also the UA record for return yards in a season. The previous high was 163 by Hootie Ingram in 1952 on 10 interceptions.

JACKSON EXCELLING IN NEW ROLE: Junior strong safety has excelled at his new position this season. Formerly a cornerback, Jackson was moved to the safety position starting in 2015. Since the move, he has collected a team-leading five interceptions through seven games, eclipsing his previous career total of two through 18 games. Jackson has added 230 yards on the picks, including two touchdowns for scores against Georgia on a 51-yard return for six and most recently at Texas A&M for 93 yards. Jackson leads the nation in return yards and ranks tied for third in total interceptions. He is currently fifth on the team in tackles with 24, while adding two pass breakups and one fumble recovery.

CONSISTENCY THE KEY FOR REED: Senior lineman Jarran Reed has been a force along the defensive front. He currently ranks second on the team in stops with 34, and has added 3.0 tackles for loss (-6 yards), one sack (-3 yards), four quarterback hurries, two pass breakups and one fumble recovery. In the Georgia game, he tied for the team lead in tackles with eight, a season-high total for the starter. Reed had five or more tackles in the first five games of this season and is averaging 4.9 stops per game.

PAIR OF WEEKLY AWARDS FOR RAGLAND vs. ARKANSAS: Alabama senior linebacker Reggie Ragland was named the Southeastern Conference's Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 12 and then earned Bednarik Award National Defensive Player of the Week honors following the 27-14 win over Arkansas. He led the Alabama defense in tackles with eight total, including seven solo stops, while helping limit the Razorbacks to 220 yards of offense, more than 250 yards below their season average. He added a sack, forced fumble, pass breakup and two quarterback hurries on the night. The SEC award was the first conference honor of Ragland's career.

REED ADDED TO BEDNARIK AWARD WATCH LIST: Senior defensive end Jarran Reed was added to the Bednarik Award Watch List on Thursday, Oct. 15. The Bednarik Award recognizes the defensive player of the year in college football. Reed was also named to the Outland Trophy Watch List (top interior lineman) entering the 2015 season after a standout junior campaign that saw him finish with 55 tackles, including 6.5 for a loss (-14 yards), one sack and five pass breakups.

DEFENSE SETS SEASON HIGH FOR SACKS VS. ULM: The Crimson Tide defense notched six total sacks against ULM, led by sophomore Da'Shawn Hand's 1.5 sacks for -4 yards. The six sacks were the most the Alabama defense has recorded since last season when UA notched six against Texas A&M. Alabama had four of its six sacks in the first half against the Warhawks, to eclipse the previous single-game season-high of three that the defense accumulated against Wisconsin.

TIDE FORCING TURNOVERS VS. MTSU: Alabama forced four total turnovers on Sept. 12 against Middle Tennessee, with three coming in the first half – two fumble recoveries and one interception, and the final coming by way of the fumble once again in the second half. Prior to that, the last time the Crimson Tide forced at least four turnovers in a game was on Sept. 15, 2012, when the Tide forced three fumbles and two interception against Arkansas. In the week prior to the trip to Fayetteville, Alabama forced four turnovers against Western Kentucky including three fumbles and one interception.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

FIRST HALF POINTS: With Minkah Fitzpatrick's 33-yard interception return for a touchdown on Texas A&M's second offensive drive, the Crimson Tide has scored in the first half of its last 110 games, the longest streak in the nation. The last time UA failed to score in the first half was on Sept. 29, 2007, when Alabama and Florida State headed into halftime in a scoreless tie. The Seminoles won that game, 21-14. Alabama has a 94-16 record during the streak.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: With a 33-yard interception return by Minkah Fitzpatrick on Texas A&M's second offensive series of the day, Alabama has now scored in 190 consecutive games – the longest streak in program history.

RUSHING TO SUCCESS: Alabama is 73-4 since the start of the 2008 season when rushing for at least 140 yards. The only losses were at Auburn in 2013, Ole Miss and Ohio State in 2014, and Ole Miss in 2015.

BALL PROTECTION: In its past 101 games, the Tide has turned the ball over only 123 times (68 fumbles, 55 interceptions) for 1.22 turnovers per game. Since 2009, that mark is even better as the Tide has turned the ball over only 104 times in 88 games (1.18/gm). Since 2009, UA starting quarterbacks have thrown an impressively low 42 interceptions in 2,395 attempts (1 INT every 57.0 attempts). Dating back to the 2009 season, the top two running backs in the rotation have lost a fumble only 18 times. Over that 102-game span, the Tide's top two running backs have recorded 2,573 touches, losing a fumble once every 143.0 touches.

OFFENSIVE LINE PROVIDING PROTECTION: The Alabama offensive line has been excellent this season with the starting five of LT Cam Robinson, LG Ross Pierschbacher, C Ryan Kelly, RG Alphonse Taylor and RT Dominick Jackson. The group ranks 17th nationally and second in the SEC, surrendering just 1.14 sacks per game (eight in seven games). The Tide limited Texas A&M to just one sack this past weekend when the Aggies entered the game ranked fourth nationally with almost four sacks per contest. The rushing offense is also fourth in the SEC at 198.7 yards per game.

ALABAMA BACKS MOVING UP IN THE RECORD BOOKS: Both Derrick Henry and Kenyan Drake continued their rise up the career rushing list against Texas A&M. In last Saturday's game, Henry rushed for a career-best 236 yards and has now amassed 2,273 yards for his career to rank 14th in Alabama history. Henry Drake collected 18 yards against the Aggies, placing him at 38th on the UA all-time rushing list with 1,349 yards.

NATIONALLY RANKED: Derrick Henry moved into the top 10 nationally in rushing yards after his 236-yard performance at No. 8 Texas A&M. He is now ninth nationally with 901 rushing yards this season and fourth in rushing touchdowns with 12. Henry also ranks 11th in rushing yards per game with 128.7.

HENRY NAMED SEC OFFENSIVE POTW: Junior running back Derrick Henry was selected as Southeastern Conference's Offensive Player of the Week following his performance at Texas A&M on Oct. 17. Henry set career-highs for rushing yards (236) and carries (32) in the Tide's 41-23 win in College Station. He added two scores and one reception for 18 yards to account for 64.1 percent of the Crimson Tide's offensive yards by day's end. The score extended his school-record for games with a touchdown to 12 total, which also leads the nation. His 236 yards on the ground marked the fifth-highest single-game rushing total in Alabama school history.

HENRY REACHING THE END ZONE CONSISTENTLY: With his 55-yard run for a score in the first quarter of the Texas A&M game, Derrick Henry recorded his 12th straight game with a touchdown. The 12-game streak is currently the longest active streak in the nation. Henry continued to build on the Alabama record that he set last week, which was previously held by Terry Davis. Davis' streak spanned two seasons, from Nov. 6, 1971-Oct. 21, 1972. The last time Henry failed to notch a score was in the LSU game last season on Nov. 8.

TDs	NAME	YEARS
12	Derrick Henry	11/15/15-Present
10	Terry Davis	11/6/71-10/21/72
8	Johnny Musso	11/28/70-10/30/71

HENRY PASSING THE CENTURY MARK: Derrick Henry's career-best 236-yard performance against Texas A&M pushed him past the century mark for the ninth time in his career, and the fourth 100-plus performance this season. He went for 148 at Georgia on Oct. 3, 127 against Ole Miss and 147 yards with three touchdowns against Wisconsin to open the 2015 campaign. Henry had a 141-yard performance against Missouri in the SEC Championship Game last season. He also went for 111 on 20 carries with a score against Florida and 113 on 17 carries with a touchdown against West Virginia in 2014. As a freshman, Henry produced a Sugar Bowl game against Oklahoma that saw the first-year back go for 100 yards on eight attempts with a touchdown, while also collecting 111 yards on six carries with a score against Arkansas.

HENRY STANDING OUT AS A STARTER: Junior Derrick Henry earned the starting nod at tailback this season and has filled that role every game since. With 236 yards rushing versus Texas A&M last Saturday, in nine games as a starter junior running back Derrick Henry has rushed for 1,103 yards on 177 carries (6.23 yards per carry) with 14 touchdowns. Henry earned the starting nod at tailback this season and has filled that role every game since. Prior to 2015, Henry started just two games - Western Carolina and Ohio State in 2014 - but in those nine combined starts, he has proven to be worthy. He has collected at least one rushing touchdown in each start, and has notched double-digit scoring days four times. Through the air, he has hauled in 11 passes for 132 yards (12.0 yards per catch) with one receiving score.

HENRY FINDING PAYDIRT: Junior running back Derrick Henry enters the eighth week of the season tied for fourth nationally in rushing touchdowns with 12. He found the end zone three times in both of the first two games to set career highs while adding one more score in the Ole Miss, ULM, Georgia and Arkansas games. He then followed up with a record-setting performance at Texas A&M, where he notched the Tide's only two offensive scores on rushes as part of his 236 yards on the ground. Henry ranks seventh nationally and second in the SEC in rushing yards (901) while ranking 11th in the nation and second in the conference in rushing yards per game (128.7).

DRAKE RETURNS WITH RESULTS FOR TIDE: Senior tailback Kenyan Drake has made a significant impact on the Crimson Tide offense this season after returning from a lower leg injury suffered a season ago against Ole Miss. Drake has been a weapon in all facets of the game including running the ball, catching passes and returning kicks. This season, the fourth-year back has amassed 262 yards and a touchdown on 55 carries (4.8 ypc) while adding 15 catches for 178 yards and a touchdown in the passing-game for 11.9 yards per reception to rank second on the team. He also leads the team with eight total kick returns for 170 yards and a 21.2 average per return. In his first game back this season against Wisconsin, Drake finished the evening with 79 yards on 10 carries, including a long rush of 43 yards that ended in the Tide end zone. The 43-yard dash was the senior's longest run since he rushed for a 46-yard score against Arkansas in 2013.

RIDLEY SETS CAREER-HIGHS, AGAIN: Freshman wideout Calvin Ridley finished the Oct. 10 Arkansas game with nine catches for 140 yards, both career-high marks for the first-year player. A week prior against Georgia, the freshman totaled 120 yards in Athens to set his high mark, and he previously reeled in a high of six against Ole Miss on Sept. 19. The 81-yard reception was also the longest of Ridley's young career. In his last two outings, Ridley has notched 14 receptions for 260 yards and two scores. Proving to be a big-play threat, he has three receptions of 45 yards or more. He set his career-high with a 45-yard catch and score and followed that with a 50-yard reception in the Georgia game, before topping both marks with his 81-yard play against Arkansas.

RIDLEY RECEPTION vs. ARKANSAS RANKS ALL-TIME: The 81-yard touchdown reception from Jake Coker to Calvin Ridley in last weekend's Arkansas game ranked in Alabama football history. The play was the second-longest touchdown reception by a freshman, falling behind only Pierre Goode's 90 yard reception from Jeff Dunn against Tennessee in 1987. The catch was also the 11th-longest reception in Alabama history. The play was the longest since a connection of 87 yards from Blake Sims to Kenyan Drake a season ago against Florida on Sept. 20, 2014. The pass-and-catch was also the longest play for the Crimson Tide in the season, longest reception of Ridley's career and longest completion of Coker's career.

TIDE COLLECTS TWO WEEKLY SEC HONORS: Alabama notched two weekly awards from the Southeastern Conference following the Georgia game on Oct. 3. Junior running back Derrick Henry was named Offensive Player of the Week, while first-year wideout Calvin Ridley earned Freshman of the Week honors from the league offices. Henry finished the game in Athens with 148 yards on 26 carries, both career highs, while adding one score to earn his second weekly honor from the league office through the first five games. Ridley had his best game as a member of the Tide, collecting 120 yards on five catches with one score to become the first freshman to pass the century mark for receiving yards since Amari Cooper did so in the 2013 BCS National Championship against Notre Dame.

CAREER HIGHS VS. UGA FOR HENRY: Derrick Henry had a career-game on Oct. 3 in Athens, setting all new highs for himself. He finished the matchup with the Bulldogs running 26 times for 148 yards, both career-highs for the junior tailback, while adding one score. His previous high rush total was 23 against Ole Miss while his high yardage mark was 147 against Wisconsin, both in the 2015 season. He produced back-to-back three-touchdown performances to set, and then tie, his career high in consecutive weeks to begin his junior campaign. His three touchdowns in the matchup with Wisconsin marked his career high. His previous high total was two, which he had accomplished three times and most recently against Missouri in the 2014 SEC Championship Game. The junior also recorded 147 yards by night's end of the AdvoCare Classic, eclipsing his previous high of 141 that he produced in that same championship game against Missouri. He followed his season-opening performance with another three touchdown game against Middle Tennessee to match his career high, while adding 96 total yards.

DRAKE SELECTED TO HORNUNG HONOR ROLL: Senior Kenyan Drake was selected to the Paul Hornung Award Honor Roll in recognition of his efforts against Middle Tennessee on Sept. 12. The Tide back produced 202 all-purpose yards, including career highs in yards and receptions. He finished the home opener with five receptions for 91 yards and a touchdown, while adding six carries for 40 yards and three kickoff returns for 71 yards. Drake's longest return went for 40 yards, and his 69-yard reception helped put Alabama in position to score its third touchdown of the day. Each year, the Hornung Award recognizes the most versatile player in major college football.

HENRY NOTCHES THREE WEEKLY AWARDS: Thanks to his career day against the Wisconsin Badgers on Sept. 5, junior running back Derrick Henry was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week, the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Offensive Player of the Week and the Maxwell Award (top running back) Player of the Week. In the season opener, Henry rushed for 147 yards on only 13 carries (11.3 ypc) with three total touchdowns, all career marks for the third-year back. He also had four rushes of 10 or more yards while accounting for five first downs. The conference honor was the first of his career.

OFFENSIVE LINE EARNS NATIONAL ACCLAIM: The Alabama offense produced 502 yards of total offense, including 34 points and 27 first downs in the season opener against Wisconsin. A main reason for the offensive output was the standout performance by the Crimson Tide offensive line, which earned itself a spot on the Joe Moore Award Honor Roll. Each week, the award recognizes and promotes top-performing units across the country based on six criteria: toughness, effort, teamwork, physicality, tone setting and finishing.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SCOTT FINDING HIS RHYTHM: Sophomore punter JK Scott has found his rhythm in recent weeks. He is averaging 48.8 yards per punt over the past two games. He punted four times for 200 yards against Arkansas with two inside the 20-yard line for a 50.0 yards per punt average and a season-long of 58 yards. At Texas A&M, he averaged 48.2 yards on eight punts (386 yards) with a long of 56 yards. Scott's season average has climbed to 42.6 yards per game to rank sixth in the SEC.

A NEW JONES RETURNS THE PUNTS: With the departure of veteran punt returner Christian Jones, senior defensive back Cyrus Jones stepped in to fill that void. In six games this season, Cyrus has returned 23 punts for 196 yards with a long return of 27 yards against Arkansas. Prior to this season, he had returned 12 total punts for 143 yards with a long return of 70 yards that came last season against Florida Atlantic. Jones returned a career-high five punts twice this season, first against ULM on Sept. 26 and then against Georgia on Oct. 10. His four returns in the season opener against Wisconsin tied his previous career high, which he also collected against Tennessee as a freshman in 2012.

SCOTT BOOTS SEASON-LONG PUNT VS. HOGS: Sophomore punter JK Scott punted a season-high 58-yard boot in the Tide's most recent game against Arkansas. The punt one-upped his previous kick on the day that went for 55 yards to eclipse his season high of 54 entering that game, which he notched the week prior at Georgia.

TIDE BLOCKS PUNT FOR A SCORE AT UGA: Freshman defensive back Minkah Fitzpatrick blocked a Georgia punt and recovered the ball for a touchdown to give Alabama its first blocked punt return for a touchdown since Sept. 21, 2013, against Colorado State. In that game, Kenyan Drake blocked a Rams punt and Dillon Lee took the ball in for a score. The blocked punt is the Crimson Tide's second of the season (also, Ronnie Harrison vs. Middle Tennessee). The block-and-score was also the fourth by Alabama under head coach Nick Saban.

ALABAMA SPECIAL TEAMS RECOVERS ONSIDE KICK: With the Alabama trailing by 13 and under four minutes to play against Ole Miss, the Tide kicked its first onside kick of the season. The boot from placekicker Adam Griffith was placed perfectly with sophomore defensive back Tony Brown recovering the bounce. The onside kick execution was UA's first since Oct. 20, 2007 vs. Tennessee, when Jamie Christensen's game-opening kick was recovered successfully by linebacker Demarcus Waldrop. UA would go on to win that game, 41-17.

BLOCKED PUNT FOR BAMA VS. MTSU: Crimson Tide freshman defensive back Ronnie Harrison blocked Middle Tennessee's punt attempt late in the second quarter of the Tide's home opener on Sept. 12 for a safety. The last time Alabama blocked a punt attempt was Sept. 21, 2013, when Kenyan Drake blocked a Colorado State punt attempt inside Bryant-Denny Stadium.

SERIES NOTES

THE ALABAMA-TENNESSEE SERIES: Alabama leads the series with Tennessee, 51-38-7, in a series that dates back to the 1901 season. The Crimson Tide has won the last eight meetings and seeks its ninth straight series win for the first time since an 11-game winning streak from 1971-81. Last season, Alabama left Knoxville with a 34-20 victory in the most recent matchup between the two teams. The Tide posted a resounding 41-17 win over the Tennessee on Oct. 20, 2007, in Tuscaloosa and followed that up with a 29-9 win in 2008 in Knoxville. The most thrilling game in the Saban era came in 2009 as a UT field goal was blocked by the hand of Terrence Cody, denying Tennessee a game winning field goal as time expired, giving Alabama a 12-10 victory. In 2010, the Tide dominated the Vols by posting a 41-10 victory on the road, while the 2011 game resulted in a 37-6 victory for UA at home. Alabama captured a 44-13 win in 2012 in Knoxville and posted a 45-10 victory in Bryant-Denny in 2013. The first meeting took place Nov. 28, 1901, in Birmingham, when the two schools played to a 6-6 deadlock. The series resumed on Oct. 20, 1928, the first of 67 consecutive meetings on the third Saturday in October, with Tennessee claiming a 15-13 win in Tuscaloosa. Alabama won 11 consecutive games (1971-81) over Tennessee to gain the upper hand in the series. The Tide and Vols have met every year since 1928, with the exception of the 1943 season when neither school fielded a football team due to World War II.

SABAN VERSUS THE VOLS: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has compiled a 10-1 (.909) career record against Tennessee. Most recently, he came away with a 34-20 win in Knoxville to close out the month of October. Saban is one of eight Alabama coaches to win his first game against Tennessee, joining W.B. Blount (1903), Jack Leavenworth (1905), J.W.H. Pollard (1906), D.V. Graves (1912), Red Drew (1947), Bill Curry (1987) and Gene Stallings (1990). During his stint at LSU, Saban faced Tennessee three times, twice during the regular season and once in postseason play. In 2000, Saban led LSU to a 38-31 overtime win over the Vols at Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge. Tennessee posted a 26-18 overtime win over LSU at Neyland Stadium on Sept. 29, 2001. The Tigers would come back in that same year to beat Tennessee, 30-21, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta to win the SEC Championship.

*---SEC Championship (Atlanta, Ga.)

UA/UT SERIES RANKINGS: History shows that when Alabama and Tennessee meet on the gridiron at least one team will be residing in the current Associated Press or USA TODAY Coaches poll. This year is no exception as Alabama is ranked No. 8 in this week's AP poll. The 2015 season marks the eighth straight year the Crimson Tide has faced the Volunteers ranked among the top 10 teams in the country. Prior to the 2008 game, the last time UA faced UT when ranked as high as No. 2 in the polls came in 1993 when the two teams played to a 17-17 tie at Legion Field. The Vols are unranked while playing Alabama for the eighth time since 2000. At least one team has been ranked, in one poll or the other, every year since 1959, with the exception of 1968, 1984 and 2000. Since 1939, the highest ranked team has compiled a 51-9-2 record in the Alabama-Tennessee series.

ALABAMA-TENNESSEE TV RESULTS: The 2015 game marks the 38th televised game in series history. The Alabama-Tennessee game has been televised every year since 1989. The Crimson Tide owns a 22-13-2 record over the Volunteers in televised games.

GENERAL NOTES

SABAN'S HOME RECORD: Head coach Nick Saban 112-19 across his four career stops in home games. He owns the advantage at every stop he has made during his collegiate coaching career, including a 53-7 mark while at Alabama. Saban has won 19 of his last 20 contests inside Bryant-Denny Stadium and has lost back-to-back matchups only one time, with the consecutive losses coming at the end of the 2007 season (LSU and ULM).

SABAN'S SEC HOME RECORD: Nick Saban owns a 44-10 all-time record when playing in a Southeastern Conference game at home, going 16-4 during his time at LSU and owning a 28-6 record at Alabama. While with the Crimson Tide, Saban has posted four perfect home SEC slates and has not lost more than one home conference game in any season other than 2007 (two losses). All six of his losses at home have been by seven points or less with half of those by three or fewer. Under Saban, Alabama has outscored its SEC home opponents 1,114-503 (32.8-14.8 points per game) and have limited the opposition to 14 points or less on 20 occasions, including six shutouts victories.

SABAN VS. SEC OPPONENTS: Crimson Tide head coach Nick Saban owns a 90-26 (.776) career record in 116 games against SEC opponents across three different stops (Michigan State, LSU and Alabama). While at Alabama, he has compiled a 60-13 (.822) record across conference foes, and is outscoring opponents by a staggering 2,958-1,136, or 40.5-15.6 points per game. Of his 13 losses against SEC opponents while at Alabama, all but two (Florida, 2008 and South Carolina, 2010) have been by seven points or less. Saban's first matchup with an SEC team came in the 1995 Independence Bowl against LSU, where his Michigan State Spartans fell, 45-26, to the Tigers. He would later go on to coach LSU to 30-12 overall record against conference opponents.

SABAN MOVING UP SEC WINS LIST: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is quickly moving up the charts for victories in SEC regular-season games against conference opponents with 89. His 89 wins rank seventh in SEC history, seven wins ahead of current Georgia head coach Mark Richt (82) on the league's list of conference wins. Each coach ahead of them on the list, except for South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier, is in the College Football Hall of Fame. Paul "Bear" Bryant tops the list with 159 conference wins at Kentucky (1946-53) and Alabama (1958-82). Spurrier is second with 131 league wins followed by John Vaught (Ole Miss, 106), Vince Dooley (Georgia, 105), Ralph "Shug" Jordan (Auburn, 98) and Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee, 98). Saban ranks second in league history in SEC regular-season winning percentage at .781 (89-25). He is fifth in league history in all-time winning percentage at .805 (140-34) and ranks 12th all-time for career wins.

TIDE 89-6 UNDER SABAN WHEN LEADING AT THE HALF: Alabama led Texas A&M, 28-13, at halftime. With the 41-23 win over the Aggies, the Crimson Tide improved to 89-6 (.937) when leading at halftime under head coach Nick Saban. Alabama has led at the half in five of its seven games this year, trailing only to Ole Miss and Arkansas at the midway point. UA had converted 36 straight halftime leads into wins before falling at Auburn on Nov.

30, 2013. The Crimson Tide had also converted 28 consecutive halftime leads into victories before seeing that streak snapped in 2010 against LSU. The first two losses in the current run (when leading at the break) came against LSU, followed by a defeat to Auburn in 2010. In 2007, Alabama held a 20-17 halftime lead before losing to LSU, 41-34, in 2007 at Bryant-Denny Stadium. In 2010, the Tide led 10-3 at the half before the Tigers rallied for a 24-20 win in Death Valley. Alabama lost 28-27 to Auburn to close out the 2010 season, after leading 24-7 at the half. The Crimson Tide is 4-8 under Saban when trailing at halftime after coming away with a victory against Arkansas on Oct. 10, despite trailing 7-3 at half. The four wins in the Saban era when trailing at the half: 34-24 over No. 7 Virginia Tech in 2009 (in Atlanta); a 24-15 over No. 9 LSU in 2009; 24-20 at Arkansas in 2010; 27-14 vs. Arkansas in 2015. He is 3-3 when tied at halftime, and Alabama's three wins under Saban when tied at halftime: at LSU in 2008, (27-21), at Auburn in 2009 (26-21) and against Tennessee in 2011 (37-6).

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama has compiled a 231-131-4 (.637) all-time record in 366 televised games (not including pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed circuit telecasts).

85 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 101 GAMES: Following last weekend's 41-23 win over Texas A&M in College Station that aired on CBS, Alabama has now played in 85 nationally televised games since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest in the past two seasons. The Tide began the 2015 season on ABC with the network carrying the AdvoCare Classic matchup against Wisconsin, before airing live on the SEC Network for the Middle Tennessee contest. Alabama was then featured on ESPN for the Ole Miss game, before returning to the SEC Network once again, this time for the matchup with ULM. The Tide's first contest on CBS came in Athens against Georgia, before the Tide faced off with Arkansas on ESPN. A season ago, UA was televised in eight games on the ABC family of networks including contests with West Virginia (ABC), FAU (SEC Network), Southern Miss (ESPN2), at Arkansas (ESPN), at Tennessee (ESPN2), Western Carolina (SEC Network), the most-viewed college football game ever on ESPN, the Iron Bowl against Auburn and the Sugar Bowl against Ohio State (ESPN). The Tide also played in six contests that were televised on CBS, including versus Florida, at Ole Miss, against Texas A&M, in the Bayou against LSU, versus top-ranked Mississippi State, and finally in the SEC Championship against the Missouri Tigers. Eleven of the Crimson Tide's 13 games in 2013 were televised nationally with the Virginia Tech, Arkansas, Mississippi State and Oklahoma games on ESPN, the Texas A&M, Tennessee, LSU and Auburn games on CBS, the Colorado State and Kentucky games on ESPN2. The Tide played 12 nationally televised games in 2012, with one game on ABC, six on CBS and five on ESPN. In 2011, Alabama played on CBS four times, while having one game on ABC, two on ESPN and ESPN2, and one game on ESPNU. In 2010, Alabama had five games on CBS, three on ESPN, two on ESPN2, one on ABC and one on ESPNU. In 2009, UA played two games on ABC (including the BCS title game), and six on CBS, while ESPN televised two more Crimson Tide games. In 2008, Alabama had 10 of its 14 games televised nationally, including five on CBS, three on ESPN, one on ABC and one on FOX.

GEORGIA EQUALS LARGEST ROAD WIN OVER TOP-10 TEAM: Alabama's 28-point victory margin in the 38-10 win over Georgia on Oct. 10 is the largest winning margin ever by a Crimson Tide team against a top-10 team at an opposing site. It also stands as the second-largest victory margin ever constructed by Alabama against a top-10 team in any game, ranking behind only a 42-point defeat (49-7) of Michigan State at the Capital One Bowl that closed out the 2010 season. The previous largest winning margin for the Tide versus an SEC top-10 opponent was a 28-point victory over Florida (31-3) in Tuscaloosa in 2005.

UA TIES LARGEST ROAD WIN vs. AP TOP-10 SEC OPPONENT: The Crimson Tide's 38-10 win over Georgia on Oct. 3 marked the largest road win against an AP top-10 SEC team in program history and tied for the largest win on the road against an SEC top-10 team in the history of the poll. The 28 points tied Florida State (1987) and Tennessee (1951) for the largest margin of victory over an AP top-10 opponent on the road.

Largest Road Win vs. AP Top-10 SEC Team

TEAM-YEAR	MARGIN	SITE	SCORE
(13) ALABAMA-10/3/2015	28	(8) Georgia	38-10
(4) Florida State-11/7/1987	28	(6) Auburn	34-6

TIDE'S SUCCESS IN SEPTEMBER: Alabama has gone 30-1 in September since 2008. Adding games in August, that record improves to 33-1. The Crimson Tide's only losses in September came on Sept. 19 against Ole Miss, and before that on September 20, 2007, to Florida State in Jacksonville by a score of 21-14.

ALABAMA-WISCONSIN DRAWS HUGE RATINGS: The season opening matchup on ABC's Saturday Night Football between the Alabama Crimson Tide and Wisconsin Badgers was college football's highest-rated game of the day, achieving a 4.3 overnight rating nationally, which was up five percent from the same window last season (Oklahoma State vs. Florida State). More impressively, the game received a 46.7 rating in Birmingham which is the highest-rated regular season game on ABC dating back to 2004.

FIRST TIME PLAYERS IN ARLINGTON: Alabama had some new faces on the field for the season opener against the Wisconsin Badgers. True freshmen Shawn Burgess-Becker (DB), Lester Cotton (OL), Minkah Fitzpatrick (DB), Damien Harris (RB), Ronnie Harrison (DB), Daron Payne (DL), Calvin Ridley (WR) and Dallas Warmack (OL) all saw action. In addition, redshirt freshmen Keith Holcombe (LB), Marlon Humphrey (DB) and Christian Miller (LB) made their first appearance. Oregon State transfer Richard Mullaney (WR) made his first appearance in a Crimson Tide uniform as well.

NEW HIRES: Nick Saban made two new additions to his 2015 staff during the offseason, hiring Tosh Lupoi to coach the outside linebackers and bringing in Mel Tucker to lead the secondary. Lupoi enters a full-time role after serving as an analyst a season ago. He has previous experience as an assistant coach at Washington and Cal, where he coached future first-rounders Danny Shelton, Cameron Jordan and Tyson Alualu. Tucker joins the Crimson Tide staff following a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator of the NFL's Chicago Bears. Tucker also served as defensive coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2009-12) and Cleveland Browns (2008). He originally linked up with Saban as a graduate assistant at Michigan State in 1997 and stayed in East Lansing for two years.

CRIMSON TIDE PLAYERS ON NFL ROSTERS: The Alabama football program is well-represented in the NFL heading into the 2015-16 season with numerous former players dotting league rosters. The Tide has 40 former players (35 active, five injured reserve, practice squad or currently suspended) earning a spot on an NFL roster this season. The Tide currently has the third-most players on an active NFL roster, with LSU at the top with 38 players just one ahead of second place Miami (Fla.). Alabama leads all colleges in producing offensive linemen, with eight currently spotting NFL rosters.

In the last seven NFL Drafts, Alabama has had 48 players selected, including 17 players in first round, 11 in the second and third rounds, five in the fourth, seven in the fifth, one in the sixth and seven in the seventh round.

TOTAL:	198-77-1 (.719) [203-77-1, .724]

- Saban has a 183-60-1 (.752) record as a college head coach to date. He has four national championships – three at Alabama – six conference championships and 16 of his teams have played in postseason bowl games, including a trip to the BCS National Championship Game following the 2003, 2009, 2011 and 2012 seasons.

- Saban is the only coach to win four BCS national championships. He is the only coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and has won four titles in his last nine years coaching college football. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years, joining Frank Leahy (Notre Dame - 1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne (Nebraska - 1994-95, 1997). He is also just the fourth coach in the poll era to win four national championships (Paul "Bear" Bryant, John McKay and Leahy).

- In 2009, Saban produced Alabama's first national championship in 17 years by guiding the Crimson Tide to a 14-0 season with dominant wins over Florida in the SEC championship and Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game. He then followed that up with his second BCS championship in three years with a 21-0 shutout of LSU following the 2011 season at the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. He made it back-to-back BCS national championships in 2012 with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game.

- In addition to the on-field success, the 2011 team was also recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom that year with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a league record, and produced an Academic All-American in Barrett Jones.

- His most recent college head coaching stint, a five-season run at LSU, produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by the Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

- Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach.

- In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Michigan State offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

- Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

- A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have one granddaughter, Amélie, and a daughter-in-law, Kelsé.

- At Michigan State, Saban started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans continue here in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Sabans have helped raise approximately $5 million for "Nick's Kids" that has been distributed to more than 250 charities and organizations throughout the state of Alabama and the Southeast. The Sabans also built 15 homes, one for each of the Tide's national championships, with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity following the April 27, 2011, tornado that struck Tuscaloosa.

- In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were both first-generation graduates.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The No. 2-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide opened its 2015 home slate in impressive fashion, forcing four turnovers en route to a 37-10 victory over visiting Middle Tennessee in front of 98,568 fans at Bryant-Denny Stadium. After a shaky opening quarter by both teams, the Crimson Tide was able to extend a 7-3 lead to a 23-3 halftime margin. Senior quarterback Jake Coker, who had another solid game, hit Robert Foster for a 19-yard touchdown to open the scoring. Derrick Henry added touchdown runs of 1 and 2 yards in the second quarter, and he reached the end zone a third time thanks to a 28-yard burst in the third quarter. Sophomore quarterback Cooper Bateman recorded his first touchdown pass of his career, connecting with Kenyan Drake on a shovel pass for a 14-yard scoring play as well.

Defensively, Alabama recovered all three fumbles it forced while also getting one interception, the most turnovers an Alabama defensive has forced since Sept. 8, 2012, against Western Kentucky. Senior linebacker Reggie Ragland led the team in tackles once again, recording a total of 7.5, including six solos. The secondary also broke up six passes.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The No. 2-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide could not overcome five turnovers in its SEC opener, falling by a final score of 43-37 to the No. 15/11 Ole Miss Rebels in a back-and-forth contest in front of a sellout crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa.

The opening kickoff of the game would set the tone for Alabama, as a fumble by sophomore receiver ArDarius Stewart on the return was recovered by Ole Miss. The Rebels were able to turn that into three points, the only points of the quarter. The Tide evened the score early in the second quarter, but two more turnovers in the quarter allowed the Rebels to take advantage of short fields to reach the end zone twice. Alabama was playing from behind for the rest of the game, twice getting within six points, but unable to complete the comeback.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The 12th-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide shut out the visiting ULM Warhawks by a final score of 34-0 in front of 101,323 fans at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Tide got off to another slow start offensively, getting on the board with 2:38 remaining in the first quarter thanks to a three-yard run by junior running back Derrick Henry. Senior quarterback Jacob Coker found freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley for a touchdown early in the second quarter, the first of the rookie's career. In the second half, Alabama was able to put the game away. Junior placekicker Adam Griffith made field goals of 35 and 40 yards, and Coker tossed two more touchdowns.

Defensively, the Tide dominated ULM. For the game, the Alabama defense allowed a total of 92 yards from scrimmage, the fewest yards given up by an Alabama defense since the 2012 BCS Championship Game against LSU, when the Tigers also gained 92 yards of offense. The defense also recorded six quarterback sacks and 12 tackles for loss.

ATHENS, Ga. — The 13th-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide was resourceful in all phases of the game and dominant defensively while showcasing an opportunistic offense in a 38-10 rout of 8th-ranked Georgia before a capacity crowd of 92,746 on a rainy day at Sanford Stadium. In a game played mostly in a steady rain, senior quarterback Jake Coker and the Alabama offense were efficient while the defense had both Bulldogs quarterbacks under duress all game long. Coker had a rushing and passing touchdown, junior running back Derrick Henry added another touchdown on the ground, and the Tide scored on a 50-yard interception return by junior defensive back Eddie Jackson and on a blocked punt by freshman defensive back Minkah Fitzpatrick.

Freshman receiver Calvin Ridley caught five passes for 120 yards, his first game over the century mark, and one touchdown while Henry set a new career-high in attempts (26) and rushing yards (148). The Alabama defense was a disruptive force in the wet conditions all day, forcing a total of four turnovers, including three interceptions by three different members of the secondary. Georgia's two quarterbacks completed only 11 of 31 pass attempts and averaged 3.2 yards per pass. The Tide gained 379 yards of offense (190 passing and 189 rushing) and converted 15 first downs. The Bulldogs picked up 299 yards for the game (106 passing and 193 rushing) along with converting 12 first downs.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The University of Alabama Crimson Tide football team turned in a gritty performance on Saturday night to defeat the Arkansas Razorbacks, 27-14, in the 2015 Homecoming game before a capacity crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium on the Alabama campus.

Alabama erased a 7-3 deficit late in the third quarter on an 81-yard pass from quarterback Jake Coker to wide receiver Calvin Ridley, a play that awoke a slumbering offense that had struggled to finish drives most of the game to that point. That score, with 1:39 left in the third period, turned the game in Alabama's favor as the Crimson Tide stopped an Arkansas drive at the Hogs' 43 on the ensuing possession and marched to a touchdown on a 3-yard pass from Coker to wideout Richard Mullaney for a 17-7 lead. After an Eddie Jackson interception for the Tide a few plays later, Alabama tacked on a 35-yard Adam Griffith field goal for a 20-7 edge with 10:07 left in the fourth quarter. Derrick Henry added a 1-yard touchdown run with 2:44 left, marking the 11th consecutive game in which he has scored on the ground.
